specific tools and supplies that you may need as well as tips to help you save money in your jewelry making endeavors. About the Expert Genny Wilson has been making jewelry for about six years and has no plans to stop anytime soon. Originally starting to make a little extra cash at a local festival she found it so enjoyable she decided to give her creations away as door prizes. I was immediately hooked. She says, "From the moment that I finished my first piece there was no going back." When asked why she loved it so much the hobbyist replied, "I've always loved making things. I love the idea of taking a bunch of things and making something new out of it. It's much more enjoyable than buying something at the store because you took the time to make it with your own two hands." So what made her decide to share her jewelry making knowledge? I've seen a lot of newcomers on the scene people that for whatever reason have decided to try their hand at making jewelry. A lot of these people are just like I was when I started and have no idea how to tell the difference between a jump ring and a headpin. I wish there had been a detailed guide I could have used as reference back then. HowExpert publishes quick how-to guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.

Jewelry Making and Design Augustus Foster Rose, Antonio Cirino, 1917 Jewellery Making for Profit James E. Hickling, James Ernest Hickling, 1995 Here for the first time is a book that tells you how to go about making jewellery for profit The main difference between making jewellery for pleasure and making jewellery for profit is the speed of manufacture This book tells you how once you have come up with an idea that will be popular to the public to devise a means of manufacturing it that is efficient enough to leave a profit margin after all the costs of manufacture have been deducted Although it is possible to make items entirely by hand and make a profit if you can sell them direct to the public this usually means having your own shop with all its attendant overheads and demands on your time At the other end of the scale you can find yourself in competition with well established businesses This book takes you along the middle road by speeding up the hand making process with the use of simple home made punches designed and manufactured by the author because there was no commercial equipment available at the time and he explains how these and the dies and jigs are made These simple tools can easily be produced by someone who is capable of making jewellery by hand Every piece of jewellery described was made by the author and sold in considerable quantities over several years Written by an expert craftsman with a lifetime's experience this book is destined to become the standard work on the subject The New Encyclopedia of Jewelry-Making Techniques Jinks McGrath, 2010-10-12 Experienced artists and novices alike will relish the beautiful jewelry creations brought to life through this detailed illustrated piece From acrylics to etching enlaying enameling polishing repoussé and more each project is clearly described and photographed The Encyclopedia of Jewelry Making Techniques is an all encompassing guide for making beautiful jewelry at home In a step by step approach
