Making Of An Atlantic Ruling Class:

The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl, 1984 With The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl put class formation at the heart of our understanding of world politics and the global economy This landmark study dissects one of the most decisive phenomena of the twentieth century the rise of an Atlantic ruling class of multinational banks and corporations A new preface by the author evaluates the book s significance in the light of recent political and economic developments From the Trade Paperback edition

The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl, 1984 American Hegemony and the Trilateral Commission Stephen Gill, 1991-11-07 Dr Stephen Gill examines the extent and nature of Americas as a hegemonic state

The Reinvention of Britain 1960-2016 Scott Newton, 2017-08-25 The Reinvention of Britain 1960 2016 explores the transformation of contemporary Britain tracing its evolution from the welfare state of the post 1945 era to social democracy in the 1960s and 1970s and the liberal market society of 1979 onwards Focusing primarily on political and economic change it aims to identify which elements of State policy led to the crucial strategy changes that shaped British history over the past six decades This book argues that since 1960 there have been two reinventions of the political economy of the United Kingdom a social democratic shift initiated by the Conservative government of Harold Macmillan and developed by Labour under Harold Wilson and a subsequent change of direction towards a free market model attempted by the Conservatives under Margaret Thatcher Structured around these two key policy reinventions of the late twentieth century chapters are organized chronologically from the development of social democracy in the early 1960s to the coalition government of the early 2010s the Conservative election win that followed and the Brexit referendum of 2016 Providing a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the political and economic history of this period The Reinvention of Britain 1960 2016 is essential reading for all students of contemporary British history

Drums of War, Drums of Development: The Formation of a Pacific Ruling Class and Industrial Transformation in East and Southeast Asia, 1945-1980 Jim Glassman, 2018-08-13 In Drums of War Drums of Development Jim Glassman analyses the geopolitical economy of industrial development in East and Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War era showing how it was shaped by the collaborative planning of US and Asian elites Challenging both neo liberal and neo Weberian accounts of East Asian development Glassman offers evidence that the growth of industry the East Asian miracle was deeply affected by the geopolitics of war and military spending the East Asian massacres Thus while Asian industrial development has been presented as providing models for emulation Glassman cautions that this industrial dynamism was a product of Pacific ruling class manoeuvring which left a contradictory legacy of rapid growth death and ongoing challenges for development and democracy Shortlisted for the 2019 Deutscher Memorial Prize

The End of Organized Capitalism Scott Lash, John Urry, 2014-04-03 In this thought provoking new book Anthony Smith analyses key debates between historians and social scientists on the role of nations and nationalism in history In a wide ranging analysis of the work of historians sociologists political scientists and others he argues that there are three key issues which have shaped debates in this field first the nature and origin of nations and nationalism second the antiquity or modernity of nations and nationalism and third the role of nations and nationalism in historical and especially recent social change Anthony Smith provides an incisive critique of the debate between modernists perennialists and primordialists over the origins development and contemporary significance of nations and nationalism Drawing on a wide range of examples from antiquity and the medieval epoch as well as the modern world he develops a distinctive ethnosymbolic account of nations and nationalism This important book by one of the world's leading authorities on nationalism and ethnicity will be of particular interest to students and scholars in history sociology and politics

A Ruined Fortress? Alan W. Cafruny, Magnus Ryner, 2003-06-28 This challenging book argues convincingly that research on European integration has lagged behind important theoretical developments in the fields of international relations international political economy and international organization The contributors contend that prevailing theories of integration despite their considerable differences all suffer from an excessive focus on institutions and ideas while overlooking the ways in which these institutions and ideas have promoted a neoliberal agenda during the last decade To overcome these weaknesses this volume draws on one of the key strands of theoretical innovation critical political economy or transnational historical materialism to develop a more comprehensive and consistent analysis of processes of European integration Although not claiming that states have ceded their role as masters of the treaties the contributors develop innovative case studies of national and transnational processes to illustrate the salience of trans European business networks and the primacy of neoliberalism as central organizing concepts of the post Maastricht European project Contributions by Baastian van Apeldoorn Hans J rgen Bieling Alan W Cafruny Ben Clift Stephen Gill Colin Hay Otto Holman Henk Overbeek Kees van der Pijl Magnus Ryner Thorsten Schulten Giles Scott Smith Leila Simona Talani and Matthew Watson

Ukraine and the Empire of Capital Yuliya Yurchenko, 2017-12-20 Since 1991 nominally independent Ukraine has been in turmoil with the Orange Revolution and the Maidan protests marking its most critical moments Now its borders are threatened and the civil unrest and armed conflict continue to destabilise the country In order to understand these dramatic events Yuliya Yurchenko looks to the country's post Soviet past in this ambitious analysis of contemporary Ukrainian political economy Providing distinctive and unexplored reflections on the origins of the conflict Yurchenko unpacks the four central myths that underlie Ukraine's post Soviet reality the myth of transition the myth of democracy the myth of two Ukraines and the myth of the other In doing so she sheds light on the current intensification of class rivalries in Ukraine the kleptocracy resource wars and analyses existing and potential dangers of the rightwing shift in Ukraine's polity stressing a historic opportunity for change Critiquing the concept of Ukraine as transition space she provides a sweeping analysis which includes the wider neoliberal restructuring of global political economy since the 1970s with particular focus on Ukraine's relations with the US the EU and Russia This is a book for those wanting to understand the current conflict as a dangerous product of neoliberalism of the empire of capital      From Columbus to ConAgra Alessandro Bonanno,1994 This examination of the role of agriculture and food in the new international division of labor argues that the globalized economy creates new winners and losers      Caught in the Net Alessandro Bonanno,Douglas Constance,1996 A documentary history that studies the series of laws passed by the US Congress to establish the federal immigration and naturalization policies which have been put into effect since the founding of the nation legislation which has been designed increasingly to restrict and curtail immigration and which has been particularly harsh on Asian immigrants since its inception Complete chapters are devoted to each major piece of legislation from the Reconstruction era to the Immigration Act of 1965 Documents attached to the end of each essay treat particular topics related to it Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      International Organizations and the North-South Conflict Kelly-Kate S. Pease,1994      Dynamics of State Formation Martin Doornbos,Sudipta Kaviraj,1997 This collection of articles is devoted to the comparative analysis of the trajectories of state formation in India and Europe Topics discussed include the genesis of early state forms in Indian and European historicocultural contexts identity formation the role of the state and citizenship trends of marginalization and perspectives on the past and present forms of state formation and social transformation in India and Europe      Connections ,1989

Beyond the Regulation Approach Bob Jessop,Ngai-Ling Sum,2006 This book presents a detailed and critical account of the regulation approach in institutional and evolutionary economics Offering both a theoretical commentary and a range of empirical examples it identifies the successes and failures of the regulation approach as an explanatory theory and proposes new guidelines for its further development Although closely identified with heterodox French economists there are several schools of regulation theory and the approach has also been linked to many topics across the social sciences Bob Jessop and Ngai Ling Sum provide detailed criticisms of the various schools of the regulation approach and their empirical application and have developed new ways of integrating it into a more general critical exploration of contemporary capitalism The authors go on to describe how the regulation approach can be further developed as a progressive research paradigm in political economy Also presented is a detailed philosophical as well as theoretical critique of the regulation approach and its implications for the philosophy of social sciences and questions of historical analysis especially periodization Addressing the implications of the regulation approach for both the capitalist economy and the changing role of the state and governance this book will be of great interest to a wide ranging audience including institutional and evolutionary economists economic and political sociologists and social and political theorists      Monthly Review John Bellamy Foster,Harry Magdoff,Ellen Meiksins Wood,Robert Waterman McChesney,1997      Global Control Peter McMahon,2002 Information systems and control technologies are key to globalization and while generally facilitating the overall trend to spatial reorganization they also effect change through the pervasive influence of internal systems logic Thus the author argues the dominant institutions of states firms and markets transform global development and are themselves transformed by key information technologies

More specifically the book identifies the key phases of modern globalization and analyses the crucial role played by different information technologies at each point in time      Remembering Elites Michael Savage, Karel Williams, 2008-05-12 About social elites in various Western countries      International Relations of Social Change Jan Aart Scholte, 1993 This book aims to equip students of international relations and other fields to analyse social change from a global perspective

Contemporary Europe Dave Edye, Valerio Lintner, 1996 Recoge 1 Contemporary Europe an introduction 2 Market or State the theory of economic organisation in Europe 3 Freedom and control the theoretical basis of European political choices

The Foreign Encounter in Myth and Religion Kees Van Der Pijl, 2010-04-15 How do we think about international relations There is no question that society is based upon its cultural foundations yet this mode of understanding the world is seemingly absent from IR The second volume of Modes of Foreign Relations and Political Economy a three volume project changing the way we think about international relations traces the key characteristics of foreign encounters over time It shows that myth religion and ethical philosophies have always informed the way that societies have interacted with outsiders from tribal relations to the imperial frontiers Acceptance of this points us towards the future state of international relations A truly masterful work The Foreign Encounter In Myth And Religion is a must for upper undergraduates and academics at the cutting edge of international relations theory
