Making Of Eastern Europe:

The Making of Eastern Europe Philip Longworth, 1992-08-18 Why has the collapse of Communism resulted in so much disappointment for the hopeful millions of Eastern Europe In this original and provocative book Philip Longworth argues that their predicament is only partly due to the imposition of the Soviet system but rather they are the heirs of misfortune which dates back centuries In exploring the origins of current problems this sweeping history ranges from the present day to the time of Constantine the Great from the Urals to the Mediterranean and the Baltic and emphasises culture and society as well as politics and economics The resulting analysis provides the crucial and until now much needed long term background to the difficulties now facing Eastern Europe This new perspective and the insight it brings will improve our understanding of this complex region and be of immense value to all who want to understand Eastern Europe s past and present The geografi fra forhistorisk tid til 1815 The Making of Eastern Europe Philip Longworth, 1994 The Making of Détente Wilfried Loth, George Soutou, 2010-04-05 Containing essays by leading Cold War scholars such as Wilfried Loth Geir Lundestad and Seppo Hentil this volume offers a broad ranging examination of the history of détente in the Cold War The ten years from 1965 to 1975 marked a deep transformation of the bipolar international system of the Cold War The Vietnam War and the Prague Spring showed the limits of the two superpowers who were constrained to embark on a wide ranging détente policy which culminated with the SALT agreements of 1972 At the same time this very détente opened new venues for the European countries French policy towards the USSR and the German Ostpolitik being the most evident cases in point For the first time since the 1950s Western Europe began to participate in the shaping of the Cold War The same could not be said of Eastern Europe but ferment began to establish themselves there which would ultimately lead to the astounding changes of 1989 90 the Prague Spring the uprisings in Gdansk in 1970 and generally the rise of the dissident movement That last process being directly linked to the far reaching event which marked the end of that momentous decade the Helsinki conference The Making of Détente will appeal to students of the Cold War international history and European contemporary history Pursued by a Bear Zbyněk A. B. Zeman, 1989 Pilgrimage, Politics and Place-Making in Eastern Europe John

František Dvornik, 1949 Rationality, Democracy, and Justice Claudio López-Guerra, Julia Maskivker, 2015-02-05 This volume advances the research agenda of one of the most remarkable political thinkers of our time Jon Elster With an impressive list of contributors it features studies in five topics in political and social theory rationality and collective action political and social norms democracy and constitution making transitional justice and the explanation of social behavior Additionally this volume includes chapters on the development of Elster's thinking over the past decades Like Elster's own writings the essays in this collection are problem driven non ideal inquiries of practical relevance This volume closes with lucid comments by Jon Elster Soviet Policy in Eastern Europe Sarah Meiklejohn Terry, 1984-01-01 A comprehensive look at both the diversity of Eastern Europe and the multiplicity of Soviet concerns in the region The Making of Central and Eastern Europe Francis Dvornik, 1949 The EC, Eastern Europe and European Unity Peter van Ham, 2016-10-06 This text argues that the process of West European integration was encouraged and facilitated by the Cold War in which the threat posed by the Soviet Union temporarily inhibited internal conflicts and in which American hegemony provided the relatively stable and secure economic political and military framework in which the major West European countries were able to co operate and take major steps towards the ultimate ideal of a European Union Constitution, Public Finance, and Transition Ringa Raudla, 2010 This book explores the role of constitutions in public finance with a special focus on transitional context in Central and Eastern Europe The main questions addressed are How do formal constitutional provisions that matter for public finance come about How do constitutions shape policy choices in public finance Part I of the book puts forth an analytical framework for analysing how fiscal constitutional provisions come about and tests the conjectures with the case of constitution making in Estonia in 1991 1992 Part II summarises syntheses and criticises the emerging orthodoxy in positive constitutional public finance and examines whether it can explain the commitment to fiscal discipline in Estonia between 1992 and 2007 Part III examines theoretically and empirically how constitutions can shape public finance laws via constitutional review auto limitation and constitutional deliberations The Making of Post-communist Elites in Eastern Europe E. Hanley, 1996 Continuity And Change In Soviet-east European Relations Marco Carnovale, 2019-04-10 This book is originated from the 1985 Rome conference on Soviet East European Relations
