Economic Factors in the Making of Pakistan (1921-1947) Naureen Talha,2000 This book traces the economic history of the Muslims from the fall of the Mughal Empire to Independence It shows how with the coming of the British a new economic structure emerged in the Indian subcontinent under which the Muslims lost not only their political power but also their economic standing and then shows how fear of continued economic deprivation fueled the demand for Partition The Making of Pakistan Richard Symonds,1976 Pakistan Shahid Javed Burki,1986 Making of Pakistan, the Military Perspective Noor ul Haq,1993 The Making of Pakistan Richard 1918-2006 Symonds,2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Empire and Islam David Gilmartin,1988 The tensions inherent in the structure and ideology of colonial organization thus provide the backdrop for the study Gilmartin s extensive use of private papers biographies and autobiographies of prominent as well as less prominent political leaders helps give this study a balanced viewpoint He also draws on a range of popular and private Urdu materials that lend the book an authentic voice BOOK JACKET The Great Partition Yasmin Khan,2007-01-01 Examines the context execution and aftermath of partition integrating the knowledge of political manoeuvres with an understanding of their fundamental social and cultural consequences This account draws together a body of research to reappraise independence and division and reinforce its catastrophic human cost The Making of Pakistan Richard Symonds,1949 The Making of Pakistan, by Richard Symonds. [2nd Edition.]. Richard Symonds (secrétaire de la Commission des Nations Unies pour l'Inde et le Pakistan.),Ahmed Ali,1950 Jinnah, Linlithgow and the Making of Pakistan Tilak Raj Sareen,2010-01-01 During the last sixty years historians have made efforts to explain the circumstances which led to the making of Pakistan There is no dearth of those who have blamed the Indian National Congress and its leaders for its creation The buedon of evidence however suggests that it was Jinnah President of All India Muslim League who got direct and indirect support from the Viceroy when the war began for achieving his aim of making a seperate homeland for the Muslims In this volume the author has shown by documentary evidence as to how this was achieved by Jinnah The documents collected from archival repositories in India and abroad shed considerable light on what transpired between Jinnah and Lord Linlithgow when the war started and how both conspired to prepare separate scheme to counter the claim of the Congress which became the basis of Pakistan. The documents also reveal how keen was the Viceroy that scheme should be unanimously approved by the Muslim League at its Lahore Session in March 1940. For cooperation with the British during the war Jinnah was given the assurance that in any constitutional change in India during or after the war the Muslims will have the right to decide their own destiny as per the Lahore or also known as the Pakistan Resolution. With an introduction and explanatory notes the author has done a commendable job of placing the documents for the scholars to pursue this subject in proper historical perspective.

Britain and the Making of Pakistan Ahmad Shujā' Pāshā, 1997 The Management of Pakistan's Economy, 1947-82 Viqar Ahmed, Rashid Amjad, 1984. The first volume in a series on Pakistan's economy, this book investigates and analyzes the factors responsible for the economic policies followed in Pakistan from 1947 to 1982. These policies the authors argue are largely responsible for the economic situation of Pakistan today. Christian Living, Rural Communities, Recreation, Returning Veterans, World Peace Colorado State University. Civil Society and Pakistan's Economy Fayyaz Baqir, 2023-03-17. This book analyses the paradoxes of Pakistan's economy, meritocratic domestic policy and the role of the state and the civil society. It argues that the transition in the country's foreign policy from geo-politics to geo-economic depends on a fundamental domestic policy transition from kleptocracy to meritocracy. Civil Society and Pakistan's Economy discusses how the prevalence of rent-seeking practices has undermined merit-based practices by increasing the cost of doing business and converting public loss into private profit by awarding inappropriate subsidies and imposing regressive taxes. The analyses are supported by describing the instruments and mechanisms used for rent-seeking practices and the creation of public awareness of options available to change these practices through citizen's action and civil society engagement. The book also shows the path of transformation and the role of participation and argues that aspiring for and capturing power is not the only way to transform Pakistan. A novel analysis depicting macro-micro linkages of encroachment of socio-economic space by the power elites and effective strategies used for its reappropriation by the people, the book will be of interest to academics researching South Asian Studies in particular South Asian economics and politics. Making Sense of Pakistan Farzana Shaikh, 2018-11-08. Argues that the decline of Pakistan is deeply entrenched with roots in its original national foundations.

Muslims and the Politics of the 1940s in India OKUNO, Rie / 岡本 理恵, 2020-06-08. This book is mainly based on primary sources like archival materials, oral evidence, newspapers and so on. Chapter 1 of the thesis analyses the gap between political leaders and the people they led with reference to views and activities surrounding the Cabinet Mission to India. While the political leaders talked about the future of India, the people suffered communal violence and hunger. The people could not understand and even join in the discussions that were to determine their future. Chapter 2 concentrates on the Urdu journalism around 1947. This is a comparative study of three Urdu newspapers with different perspectives on the same issues Chapter 3 describes the Muslim refugees in Delhi Not only the refugees but the Islamic culture was in danger at that time The purpose of the present study is to understand and explain the hardship of those people who could not celebrate their Independence from bottom of their hearts This analysis may be of some help in understanding the status of the Muslim minority in India in the present day 1940

Pakistan's War on Terrorism Samir Puri, 2012-02-20 This book examines Pakistan's strategies in the war against Islamist armed groups that began late 2001 following the 9 11 attacks The significance of the war inside Pakistan can hardly be understated Starting in the tribal territories adjacent to Afghanistan Pakistan's war has come to engulf the majority of the country through a brutal campaign of suicide bombings Thousands of Pakistani lives have been lost and the geostrategic balance of the region has been thrown into deep uncertainty Pakistan's War on Terrorism is an account of a decade long war following the 9 11 attacks that is yet to be chronicled in systematic fashion as a campaign of military manoeuvre and terrorist reprisal It is also an analytic account of Pakistan's strategic calculus during this time both in military and political terms and how these factors have been filtered by Pakistan's unique strategic culture This text will be of great interest to students of Asian Politics Terrorism and Political Violence and Security Studies in general
