Make Me Work Stories:

Making Motherhood Work Caitlyn Collins,2020-05-05 The work family conflict that mothers experience today is a national crisis Women struggle to balance breadwinning with the bulk of parenting and social policies aren't helping Of all Western industrialized countries the United States ranks dead last for supportive work family policies Can American women look to Europe for solutions Making Motherhood Work draws on interviews that Caitlyn Collins conducted over five years with 135 middle class working mothers in Sweden Germany Italy and the United States She explores how women navigate work and family given the different policy supports available in each country Taking readers into women's homes neighborhoods and workplaces Collins shows that mothers' expectations depend on context and that policies alone cannot solve women's struggles With women held to unrealistic standards the best solutions demand that we redefine motherhood work and family
