Cornell Reading Course for the Farm Home Flora Rose, Martha van Rensselaer, 1916    The Routledge Companion to Fashion Studies Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2021-09-19 This collection of original essays interrogates disciplinary boundaries in fashion gathering fashion studies research across disciplines and from around the globe. Fashion and clothing are part of material and visual culture, cultural memory and heritage they contribute to shaping the way people see themselves interact and consume. For each of the volume's eight parts scholars from across the world and a variety of disciplines offer analytical tools for further research. Never neglecting the interconnectedness of disciplines and domains these original contributions survey specific topics and critically discuss the leading views in their areas. They include discursive and reflective pieces as well as discussions of original empirical work and contributors include established leaders in the field, rising stars and new voices including practitioner and industry voices. This is a comprehensive overview of the field, ideal not only for undergraduate and postgraduate fashion studies students but also for researchers and students in communication studies, the humanities, gender and critical race studies, social sciences and fashion design and business.

Seligman, 1996 Containing 2,729 entries, Kevin L. Seligman's bibliography concentrates on books, manuals, journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years. After a historical overview, Seligman approaches his subject chronologically, listing items by century through 1799, then by decade. In this section, he deals with works on flat patterning, draping, grading and tailoring techniques as well as on such related topics as accessories, armor, civil costumes, clerical costumes, dressmakers' systems, fur, gloves, leather, military uniforms and undergarments. Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker. Here, too, he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments. A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostumerelated professional journals and periodicals. The author breaks these articles down into three categories: American, English and other. Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas, providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance, dolls, folk and national dress, footwear, millinery and wigmaking, and hair. A section devoted to commercial pattern companies, periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies, publishers and publications. In addition to full bibliographic notation, Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available. The majority of the listings are annotated. Each listing is coded for identification and cross referencing. An author index, a title index, a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want Seligman's historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context An appendix provides a cross reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies publishers and publications Given the size and scope of the bibliography there is no other reference work even remotely like it     The Woman Citizen ,1920
