Minds Eye Using Pictures Creatively In Language Learning:

The mind's eye Alan Maley,Alan Duff,Françoise Grellet,1991    The Mind's Eye Student's book Alan Maley,Alan Duff,Françoise Grellet,1980-11-20    The mind's eye Alan Maley,1980    Exploring Creativity Through Writing Alan Maley,Sharoon Sunny,2025-08-01 The book explores the nature of human creativity and its importance in education with reference to past and ongoing work on creativity theory It aims to direct the attention of teachers to the need for creativity in education by dispelling the mystique surrounding it and the feelings of inadequacy or apprehension it may evoke in educators particularly in the Asia region The book offers an introduction to creativity in writing the rationale for including it in language programmes the benefits it can bestow and the results it can produce as well as dealing with common objections to it It divides creative writing into two major sections poetry and stories followed by a copious set of varied classroom activities For each activity a standard format is adopted to offer teachers maximum support in implementing the procedures including supplementary comments on each activity It is distinct for its accessibility and clarity its abundance of practical and ready to use classroom activities and its unique combination of theoretical underpinnings and practical implementation This book will be useful to students pre service teachers and researchers who are new to the teaching of English Language both in the Asian context and in the wider world It will also be an essential companion to practicing in service teachers and Teacher Trainers to further sharpen their concepts and skills    Creativity and English Language Teaching Alan Maley,Tamas Kiss,2017-10-05 This book offers a unique perspective on creativity in an educational environment where there is a relative dearth of literature on this subject The authors link practice and principle to provide a practical and valuable guide for more creative language learning and teaching using not only theoretical ideas but useful practical advice and recommendations on how better to introduce creativity into teaching and daily life This innovative volume is sure to become a crucial reference point for teachers and practitioners of language teaching and anyone interested in the ways in which creativity can be channelled into the teaching and learning process    The Mind's Eye: Teacher's book Alan Maley,1980    Intercultural Competence Past, Present and Future María Dolores López-Jiménez,Jorge Sánchez-Torres,2021-01-08 This book explores the benefits of teaching reflection upon one's own culture to develop intercultural competence and looks into the relationship between the proficiency level of the second language and the target culture It introduces new debates on the concept of critical cultural awareness in intercultural learning and teaching for example the indiscriminate use of terminologies related to the idea of intercultural encounters Also it provides insight into the relationship between language and culture using a new tool such as the Autobiography of Intercultural Encounters through Visual Media The presentation of different approaches tools barriers educational and cultural realities online intercultural exchange projects and concepts such as motivation attitudes stereotyping otherization and critical cultural awareness makes this book an excellent instrument not only for teachers but also for researchers policy makers and private and public institutions that want to explore culture and interculturality and to promote an intercultural competence and global citizenship among its learners users clients and or an interculturally oriented language education Teaching Ideas and Resources for African Languages ,1992 The Mind's Eye Student's book Alan Maley,Alan Duff,Frangoise Grellet,1980-11-20 Forum ,1989 Designing Writing Tasks for the Assessment of Writing Leo Ruth,Sandra Murphy,1988 This volume reports the results of a series of investigations of the properties of writing tasks their authors intentions and the responses that these tasks evoked in student writers and teacher raters The volume explains how both student writers and teacher raters in their reading of the same topic text can arrive at different meanings The investigations undertaken led the authors to make a number of recommendations about selecting subjects specifying audience and mode formulating instructions and wording the topic These recommendations are presented in non technical language in a comprehensive set of Guidelines for Designing Topics for Writing Assessments Investigating Literacy Colin J. Laine,Sue Geddis,1992 This book is an essential reference for practitioners working with adults who are low functioning or considered illiterate Serving Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Students Melvina Azar Dame,1992-12-31 Provides a framework for expanding the school library's function to meet the needs of linguistically and or culturally diverse students The text examines the need for specialised materials and services and makes recommendations on how to provide these services The Practice of Creative Writing Heather Sellers,2020-09-09 When it comes to writing The Practice of Creative Writing has a simple message you can do this and it's worthwhile to try Designed for students in the introductory course The Practice of Creative Writing teaches writers how to trust their own voice experiment with form and develop a writing process that allows them to spend more productive time at the desk Rather than locking into one genre early writers are encouraged to work among and in between genres and to focus on creating a writing practice that privileges close observation patience and techniques of pattern energy and shape Heather Sellers who writes in multiple genres herself has developed a lively welcoming student centered approach that teaches creative concentration close reading and generating pages She provides opportunities to be playful and to experiment at the same time that she teaches students the importance of discipline form and craft Heather Sellers is a certified online instructor and The Practice of Creative Writing is designed to be used in traditional face to face classrooms or in online education Each chapter begins with objectives for that module Prompts and writing practices are carefully sequenced Every chapter ends with both genre specific writing projects alongside hybrid and experimental prompts The readings included in this new edition invite students to experience an even wider range of innovative and new literatures A new chapter on creative ways to approach revision as a shaping practice engaged throughout the writing process helps students work harder on their writing Publisher's Monthly ,1992 Bibliographic Guide to Education 2003 GK Hall,2004-10 The Bibliographic Guide to Education lists recent publications cataloged during the past year by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by publications in the field of education cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York
