Pestinger,2020-10 Is Your Life Over as You Know It Or Simply Just Beginning The Road to Purpose provides a road map to help guide you through the fear and uncertainty that often comes with life transition Whether you are a young adult moving from school to your first career a business owner getting ready to exit the business you have put your heart and soul into or a seasoned executive recently downsized and figuring out what to do next you will see yourself in the stories of one man s journey and the lessons learned that resulted in living a life of meaning and purpose In The Road to Purpose The Roadmap for Overcoming Life s Major Transitions Greg Pestinger charts the five major growth areas that are often the result of major life changing events and eloquently delivers signposts along the way to get you past the disappointment fear and sometimes hopelessness He uses his own stories as a metaphor to help you through your struggles for meaning and purpose specifically How to grieve and accept the transition How to get to know yourself all over again the real you who has often been buried by a busy life How to find the courage to be your authentic self How to resolve to love yourself for who you are How to make the commitment to living a life of awe and wonder The Road to Purpose acknowledges the pain and disappointment of transition and uses that pain to help you live the life you were meant to lead a life of meaning and purpose A life full of wealth happiness and intention in service to others Join me on the journey of a lifetime Your future will be more amazing than you could ever imagine Life on Purpose Greg Dragan,2021-10-05 The man in the painting on the front cover is my father A quintessential people person who wasn t interested in just being one of the crowd the color scheme of his first house is a rich example This meant in his late twenties getting off the road well traveled and finding the unique opportunities on the path that he wanted to take Anyone starting to build a career a family or both needs a process and a plan just like what my parents wanted discovered and used to set their own course Sadly though most don t have a plan they never learned it was necessary or even how to properly go about it This book shows you how while escorting you alongside the authors family experiences using a simple deliberate approach he learned growing up with his parents and siblings Here is what you ll discover and learn APPRECIATE how your family has influenced you and contributed to what you are now getting out of life From this understanding you can better design the successful family characteristics you want your own family to have DISCOVER how you can help your children have extraordinarily rich sibling relationships as part of a true family team UNDERSTAND how your powerful mind interacts with your personality traits and external influences and is used to set and control the path you want for you and your family REALIZE that change is the only thing we can be sure of and that parents can truly turn uncertainty and uprooting into an advantage in their children s lives LEARN that your young and acquire the life of your dreams Life Lessons Ian James Shepherd, 2003-05 Life Lesson Number 324 Fire in the Hole I just wanted to humiliate myself one more time by telling you a funny story about what happened to me this weekend It was one of those situations where you think things can't get any worse but they do Let me set the background picture so you understand how and where this happened We have had VBS play practice at the church building every evening and every day for the last three weeks Sunday afternoon was no different We finished at about 4 00 PM which gave us just enough time to rush home to my favorite toilet you know the one that you're comfortable with and take care of business before returning to church There's no place like home there's no place like home So on arrival I rush into our little bathroom at home take care of business and sigh that sigh that we all sigh when that sense of great relief comes over us Now being the good husband that I am and under strict instructions from my wife as to toilet etiquette I reach down for a small decorative glass candle and a book of matches to light the incense fire I balance the small candle on my bare knee strike the match light the wick inside the glass and reaching down try to place the candle and matchbook on the floor At this point the candle slips flipping on its side Not a problem I reach down and flip it back up trying not to disturb the lovely decorative rope and flower ornaments around the candle I return to my relaxation and begin to read Problem When I had gently set the candle back in the upright position a small piece of string had accidentally ended up dangling about an inch and half over the candle flame High enough to not ignite immediately but long enough to lull me into a sense of relaxation The offending string then proceeds to ignite into a lovely blue flame about three inches high At this point I now have two open flames in the bathroom candlewick and string Problem I scream for help but no one hears me as the toilet door bathroom door and bedroom door are all shut It is like being in Maxwell Smart's cone of silence Since I knew that the combination of two open flames in a closed chamber filled with gas is not a good thing panic begins to set in Reaching down I grab the candle jar and bring it close to my face blowing as hard as I can to put out the string fire Problem Important safety tip Never I repeat never blow on a burning object with your pants down around your ankles Why Because small particles of burning debris tend to waft off and float downwards sending hot coals into your underwear and onto the what I perceive to be highly flammable toilet carpet So let me give you a visual recap of the situation at this point I now have fire in the candle fire on the string hot coals in my underwear and burning embers on the carpet around the toilet where I am still sitting Things could not get worse Problem After much huffing and blowing at the open flame the burning string finally goes out At this point a temporary sense of relief overcomes me as a crisis appears to have been averted Wrong There is still much smoke coming from the burning string and hot embers are still wafting away to do whatever damage they can In hindsight my next move was really questionable With the burning ember being so large and my hands full at that time the thought crossed my mind that I should lick my fingers and snuff out the burning string But I thought to myself you will burn your thumb and finger if you do that I then made a fateful choice I said to myself Just wad up a huge bundle of toilet paper and grab the wick The pressure will snuff out the ember since it will be in the middle of the paper and it won't flame up Don't go there I know I know So I grab the toilet roll give it one mighty pull and about six feet of paper hits the floor I quickly do the lasso movement with my arm wrapping the paper around my hand I then crush
