The Book Before Printing David Diringer, 2013-01-17 A remarkable work For sheer weight of information there is no equal to it The Spectator It is probable that the earliest books were written on wood or leaves as early as the fourth millennium B C These fragile materials unfortunately have not come down to us In their absence the earliest surviving books are the clay tablets of Mesopotamia the oldest attributed to c 3500 B C On these ancient clay shards dense rows of cuneiform script record the seminal writings of mankind the Gilgamesh epic Sumerian literary catalogues Babylonian astrology Assyrian accounts of the Creation and the Flood and the Lipit Ishtar Law Code c 2000 B C predating Hammurabi and the oldest law code in human history Probably as ancient as the Mesopotamian writings or nearly so are Egyptian hieroglyphics In a sense it is the papyrus scrolls of the Egyptians preserved by that country's hot dry climate that represent the true ancestors of the modern book As the centuries passed papyrus slowly gave way to parchment the prepared skins of animals as writing material Indeed the handwritten parchment or vellum codex is the book par excellence of the Middle Ages Western European book production is only part of the story and the author is at pains to illuminate the bibliographic contributions of numerous peoples and cultures Greek and Roman book production books made in central and southern Asia the books of Africa pre Columbian America and the Far East material that is often not mentioned in Western histories of the book Based on years of painstaking research and incorporating a wealth of new material and conclusions the text is enhanced throughout by abundant illustrations nearly 200 photographic facsimiles of priceless manuscripts in museums and libraries around the world

The Oxford Handbook of Social Relations in the Roman World Michael Peachin, 2011 The study of Roman society and social relations blossomed in the 1970s By now we possess a very large literature on the individuals and groups that constituted the Roman community and the various ways in which members of that community interacted There simply is however no overview that takes into account the multifarious progress that has been made in the past thirty odd years The purpose of this handbook is twofold On the one hand it synthesizes what has heretofore been accomplished in this field On the other hand it attempts to configure the examination of Roman social relations in some new ways and thereby indicates directions in which the discipline might now proceed The book opens with a substantial general introduction that portrays the current state of the field indicates some avenues for further study and provides the background necessary for the following chapters It lays out what is now known about the historical development of Roman society and the essential structures of that community In a second introductory article Clifford Ando explains the chronological parameters of the handbook The main body of the book is divided into the following six sections 1 Mechanisms of Socialization primary education rhetorical education family law 2 Mechanisms of Communication and Interaction 3 Communal Contexts for Social Interaction 4 Modes of Interpersonal Relations friendship patronage hospitality dining funerals benefactions honor 5 Societies Within the Roman Community collegia cults Judaism Christianity the army and 6 Marginalized Persons slaves women children prostitutes actors and gladiators bandits The result is a unique up to date and comprehensive survey of ancient Roman society Moral Education for Women in the Pastoral and Pythagorean Letters Annette Huizenga, 2013-03-27 In Moral Education for Women in the Pastoral and Pythagorean Letters Philosophers of the Household Annette Bourland Huizenga examines the Greco Roman moral philosophical curriculum for women by comparing these two pseudepigraphic epistolary collections The analysis is organized around four elements textual resources teachers and learners instructional strategies and subject matter Huizenga shows that the author of the Pastorals has adopted nearly all of the pagan aspects of this curriculum but has supplemented these with theological justifications drawn from Pauline literature and traditions The letters attributed to female Pythagoreans have long been suggested as comparanda for the Pastorals but are not well known as sources This volume provides a Greek edition a new English translation and a text history of these letters The Oxford Handbook of Greek Cities in the Roman Empire, 2024-11-13 This handbook provides the first comprehensive treatment of the Greek cities in the Roman Empire The poleis are studied here both as urban forms with a specific organization of space and specific public buildings and as socio political entities with specific institutions and social hierarchies The contributions cover all the important aspects of civic life and present the on going debates on the degree of integration and autonomy uniformization and diversity of the Greek civic model in the Roman Empire One of the main guidelines of the handbook is the issue of the impact of Roman rule on the long lasting Greek model of political social and spatial organization Geographically the volume covers the whole Roman Empire with a focus on regions where the Greek polis was the dominant form of organization such as mainland Greece the Aegean Islands Asia Minor Syria and the Black Sea region In addition to that the Greek cities of Sicily and Egypt as well as more isolated Greek settlements such as Cyrene in North Africa are also considered The chronological scope of the handbook runs from a community's integration into the Roman Empire varying depending on the region until the 3rd c AD when the epigraphic documentation strongly decreases and some important changes make way for the transition to Late Antiquity

Papyrological primer Martin David, Bernhard A. van Groningen, 1946 Encyclopedic Dictionary of Roman Law Adolf Berger, David R. Clark, 1953 This Dictionary explains technical Roman legal terms translates elucidate those Latin words which have a specific connotation when used in a juristic context or in connection with a legal institution or question provides a brief picture of Roman legal institutions sources as a sort of an introduction to them The objectives of the work not the juristic character of available Latin writings therefore determined the inclusion or exclusion of any single word or phrase This dict is not intended to be a complete Latin English dict for all words which occur in the writings of the Roman jurists or in the various codifications of Roman law The reader must consult a general Latin English lexicon for ordinary words that have no specific meaning in law or juristic language Reprinted 1980 Papyrologisch Leerboek. Papyrological Primer. Second - English - Edition ... With 6 Facsimiles and 2 Maps Martin DAVID (and GRONINGEN (Bernhard Abraham van)), Bernhard Abraham Groningen, 1946 The Year's Work in Classical Studies ,1970 An Introduction to the History and Sources of Jewish Law Neil S. Hecht, 1996 Jewish law has a history stretching from the early period to the modern State of Israel encompassing the Talmud Geonic and later codifications the Spanish Golden Age medieval and modern response the Holocaust and modern reforms Fifteen distinct periods are separately studied in this volume each one by a leading specialist and the emphasis throughout is on the development of the institutions and sources of the law providing teachers with the essential background material from which a variety of sources from many different perspectives may be taught Most chapters are written to a common plan with treatment of the political background of the period and the nature of Jewish judicial autonomy the character literary and legal of the sources the legal practice of the period its principal authorities and examples of characteristic features of the substantive law especially in family law Checklist of Editions of Greek, Latin, Demotic, and Coptic Papyri, Ostraca, and Tablets John F. Oates, 2001 The primary purpose of the Checklist is to provide for scholars and librarians a ready bibliography of all monographic volumes both current and out of print of Greek Latin Demotic and Coptic texts on papyrus parchment ostraca or wood tablets A secondary purpose of the original checklist first published in 1974 was to establish a standard list of abbreviations for editions of Greek texts Now this has been largely achieved this edition aims to expand standardized abbreviations to cover Coptic and Demotic material In general this volume offers more complete coverage of Demotic material than ever attempted before it is especially valuable since this is a growing area of study that lacks bibliographic resources and standard notations The Year's Work in Classical Studies ... Classical Association (Great Britain), 1948 Papyrological Primer Martin David, Bernhard Abraham Groningen, 1952 The Hand-produced Book David Diringer, 1953 Catalogue of Accessions, 1900-1950 Dr. Williams's Library, 1955 International Books in Print ,1991 The "Mithras Liturgy" Hans Dieter Betz, 2005 Just hundred years after the first edition of Albrecht Dietrich s Eine Mithrasliturgie Leipzig 1903 1923 the present book offers a complete new edition of so complex a text It provides the Greek text an English translation a punctual introduction an extensive commentary an index of Greek words and of the various voces magicae and finally also an appendix with photographic reproductions of the papyrus Not only Hans Dieter Betz is one of the most gifted scholars in the domain of primeval Christianity and Hellenistic religions but he already devoted to the Mithras Liturgy a monographic essay which is here enriched and largely supplemented We particularly appreciated how Betz deals with the critical debate which spread from Dietrich s book in particular the criticism put forward by one of the most important scholars of Mithraism the Belgian Franz Cumont and how he sets Dietich in the historical and cultural milieu of his age Chiara O Tommasi Moreschini auf www.plekos.uni-muenchen.de Scripta Classica Israelica ,1997 The New Papyrological Primer Pieter Willem Pestman, 2007
