Tommy Carteret Justus Miles Forman, 1906 Ecocriticism and the Island Pippa Marland, 2022-12-19 Islands have long been the subject of cultural fascination but in recent decades they have exerted an increasingly powerful centrifugal force sending writers to the outer edges of the British Irish archipelago in search of inspiration and insight Drawing on contemporary ecocritical approaches island studies and emergent archipelagic perspectives Ecocriticism and the Island explores a wide selection of island themed creative non fiction Through a combination of textual analysis and where possible original interviews and archival research Pippa Marland offers new insights into the work of Tim Robinson Brenda Chamberlain Christine Evans W G Sebald Stephen Watts Amy Liptrot Kathleen Jamie Adam Nicolson Robert Macfarlane and David Gange In assessing the ways in which these authors negotiate existing cultural tropes of the island while offering their own distinctive articulations of islandness this book represents an important intervention into island literary studies At the same time it contributes to the development of an archipelagic strand of ecocriticism one that offers a valuable perspective on human environmental relationships in an Anthropocene context The Christian Life C. 2015 Man Booker International Prize At long last twenty five years after the Hungarian genius L szl Krasznahorkai burst onto the scene with his first novel Satantango dances into English in a beautiful translation by George Szirtes Already famous as the inspiration for the filmmaker B la Tarr s six hour masterpiece Satantango is proof as the spellbinding bleak and hauntingly beautiful book has it that the devil has all the good times The story of Satantango spread over a couple of days of endless rain focuses on the dozen remaining inhabitants of an unnamed isolated hamlet failures stuck in the middle of nowhere Schemes crimes infidelities hopes of escape and above all trust and its constant betrayal are Krasznahorkai s meat At the center of Satantango George Szirtes has said is the eponymous drunken dance referred to here sometimes as a tango and sometimes as a csardas It takes place at the local inn where everyone is drunk Their world is rough and ready lost somewhere between the comic and tragic in one small insignificant corner of the cosmos Theirs is the dance of death You know Mrs Schmidt a pivotal character tipsily confides dance is my one weakness
