Whelton,2026-01-08 He returned with lies They came with consequences When Melody s long lost father walks back into her life after twenty years of silence she knows something doesn t add up Ryan s carefully crafted story about reconciliation has too many holes and his suspicious questions about the restaurant s operations suggest motives that have nothing to do with family Jackie and Lauren thought they d faced the worst Prairie Rose had to offer They were wrong Because Ryan didn t return alone He brought a million dollar debt to a Chicago based criminal organization and those debts are collected in blood As a parade of suspicious investigators descends on Charlie Joe s BBQ Shack each with their own agenda and questionable credentials Charlie Joe s nieces must determine who s legitimate who s compromised and who s working directly for the criminals hunting Ryan When the danger escalates from surveillance to direct threats they realize they re not just dealing with one deadbeat father s mistakes They re caught in the middle of an organized crime operation that views them as collateral damage With Sheriff Ray Martinez coordinating federal assistance and Melody s brilliant analytical mind working

But in a game where every investigator could be an enemy and trust is a luxury they can't afford, survival means making impossible choices about family loyalty and the price of protection. In Prairie Rose, some family reunions are better left uncooked and some debts demand more than money can pay. Marinated Lies serves up high stakes suspense with criminal conspiracies, dangerous deceptions and where every investigator could be the enemy. Family bonds are tested like never before and a father's sins threaten to destroy everything.

We Are the Scribes Randi Pink, 2022-10-18

A young adult novel by Randi Pink about a teenage activist who is visited by the ghost of Harriet Jacobs, an enslaved woman. Ruth Fitz is surrounded by activism. Her mother is a senator who frequently appears on CNN as a powerful Black voice fighting for legislative social change within the Black community. Her father, a professor of African American history, is a walking encyclopedia spouting off random dates and events. And her beloved older sister, Virginia, is a natural activist steadily gaining notoriety within the community and on social media. Ruth, on the other hand, would rather sit quietly reading or writing in her journal. When her family is rocked by tragedy, Ruth stops writing. As life goes on, Ruth's mother is presented with a political opportunity she can't refuse. Just as Senator Fitz is more absent, Ruth begins receiving parchment letters with a seal reading WE ARE THE SCRIBES sent by Harriet Jacobs, the author of the autobiography and 1861 American classic Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl. Is Ruth dreaming? How has she been chosen as a scribe when she can barely put a sentence together? In a narrative that blends present with past, Randi Pink explores two extraordinary characters who channel their hopelessness and find their voices to make history.
