Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 The Historic American Buildings Survey:

Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS's important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana's architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state's architecture An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State Anyone interested in the state's architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings or the Creole cottage to the celebrated plantation homes along the River Road Bayou Built The Legacy of Louisianas Historic Architecture examines the so called built environment from the perspectives of cultural geography and historic preservation It explores the various folk types and architectural styles that became part of the Louisiana landscape from the first French settlement in 1699 through the railroad and lumber boom of the 1890s The Journal of American History Organization of American historians,1998 Architecture in the United States, 1800-1850 William Barksdale Maynard,2002-01-01 This study traces the development of American architecture from the age of Jefferson to the antebellum era providing a survey of this important period W Barksdale Maynard overturns the long accepted notions that the chief theme of early 19th century American architecture was a patriotic desire to escape from European influence and that competing styles chiefly reflected the American struggle for cultural uniqueness Instead deep and consistent aesthetic ties especially with England shaped American architecture and house designs Maynard shows that the Greek Revival in particular was an international phenomenon with American achievements inspired by British example and with taste taking precedence over patriotism

CRM ,2003 The Country Houses of John F. Staub Stephen Fox,2007 This ambitious study of Staub s work by architectural historian Stephen Fox goes beyond a description of Staub s houses Fox analyzes the roles of space structure and decoration in creating defining and maintaining social class structures and expectations and shows how Staub was able to incorporate these elements and understandings into the elegant buildings he designed for his clients In the process he contributes greatly to a fuller understanding of Houston s emergence as a premier American city BOOK JACKET LLA Bulletin Louisiana Library Association,1998 Louisiana History ,1999 Heritage and Hoop Skirts Paul Hardin Kapp,2022-10-26 Winner of the 2023 John Brinckerhoff Jackson Book Prize Winner of the 2023 UMW Center for Historic Preservation Book Prize Winner of the 2023 Fred B Kniffen Award from the International Society for Landscape Place Material Culture Winner of the 2023 Michael V R Thomason Book Award from the Gulf South Historical Association For over eighty years tourists have flocked to Natchez Mississippi seeking the Old South but what they encounter is invention a pageant and rewrite of history first concocted during the Great Depression In Heritage and Hoop Skirts How Natchez Created the Old South author Paul Hardin Kapp reveals how the women of the Natchez Garden Club saved their city created one of the first cultural tourism economies in the United States changed the Mississippi landscape through historic preservation and fashioned elements of the Lost Cause into an industry Beginning with the first Natchez Spring Pilgrimage of Antebellum Homes in 1932 such women as Katherine Grafton Miller Roane Fleming Byrnes and Edith Wyatt Moore challenged the notion that smokestack industries were key to Natchez s prosperity These women developed a narrative of graceful living and aristocratic gentlepeople centered on grand but decaying mansions In crafting this pageantry they created a tourism magnet based on the antebellum architecture of Natchez Through their determination and political guile they enlisted New Deal programs such as the WPA Writers Project and the Historic American Buildings Survey to promote their version of the city Their work did save numerous historic buildings and employed both white and African American workers during the Depression Still the transformation of Natchez into a tourist draw came at a racial cost and further marginalized African American Natchezians By attending to the history of preservation in Natchez Kapp draws on a rich archive of images architectural documents and popular culture to explore how meaning is assigned to place and how meaning evolves over time In showing how and why the Natchez buildings of the Old South were first preserved commercialized and transformed into a brand this volume makes a much needed contribution to ongoing debates over the meaning attached to cultural patrimony Vernacular Architecture Newsletter, 1997 Public Documents Louisiana State Library (1946-1991), 1997

Encyclopedia of American Art Before 1914 Jane Turner, 2000 This alphabetically arranged volume covers all the major artistic developments in the USA from the Colonial period until 1914 with the start of World War I Architecture and Town Planning in Colonial North America James D. Kornwolf, 2002 An extraordinary work unparalleled in its breadth and depth of detail this three volume set offers the first comprehensive history of architecture and town planning throughout colonial North America from Russian Alaska to French Quebec to Spanish Florida and California to British Dutch and other settlements on the East Coast Across this vast terrain James Kornwolf conjures the outlines of the constructed environment as it emerged in settlements and communities in structures and sites and in the flourishes and idiosyncrasies of the families and individuals who erected and inhabited colonial buildings and towns Here as never before readers can observe the impulses and principles of colonial design and planning as they are implemented in the buildings and streets harbors and squares gardens and landscapes of the New World Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf s massive work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent s geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent s geography and its peoples Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings forts and churches Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities their rivalries and frictions their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land His work conveys for the first time the full scale from intimate to grand of their enduring transformation of the natural landscape of North America
