Stendhal wrote in Life of Rossini It is necessary to have loved as implacably as the Portuguese Nun and with all the unquenchable ardour of which she has left us so vivid an echo in her immortal Letters First published in 1668 by then small Parisian bookseller Claude Barbin the Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun known in French as Portuguese Letters translated into French or Portuguese Letters witnessed immediate success It is one of the first fictional epistolary novels that inspired many to come in French literature such as Dangerous Liaisons by Pierre Choderlos de Laclos and Julie by Jean Jacques Rousseau The Love Letters comprise of five love letters written by a Portuguese nun cloistered in the Franciscan convent of Beja to the French officer who went to Portugal to support the Portuguese in their war of independence against the Spanish and had loved her and left her The letters showcase a remarkable depth of psychological insight into the inner workings of a woman in love bearing witness to a gradual yet pivotal development of self awareness and an elegantly controlled depiction of passion The Letters of a Portuguese Nun (Marianna Alcoforado) Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues,1900 The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado,2015-02-16 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado,1901 The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun [to Noël Bouton, Chevalier Afterwards Marquis de Chamilly] Marianna d'. Alcoforado,N. B. marquis de Chamilly (marshal of France.),1901 The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Marianna Alcaforado,2013-09-12 Alexandre Piedagnel in his preface to The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun a reading from which is given in this number says In 1663 it became the policy of Louis XIV to help Portugal against Spain this was done indirectly however subsidies were secretly furnished troops levied and a crowd of volunteers pressed to the front Between this little army commanded by Schomberg and the poor Spanish army which disputed the field each summer much marching and counter marching took place with very small results There were many skirmishes and encounters and among them perhaps one victory Who cares about it today But the curious reader in search of what may charm him cannot help saying as Saint Beuve said This was all well enough since the letters of the Portuguese nun came of it This war which lasted until 1668 and in which Portugal triumphed is indeed quite forgotten The Portuguese Letters on the contrary have passed through twenty editions and their great success is still undiminished This is due above all to the accent of sincerity in the writer The poor nun of Beja Marianna Alcoforado has painted with such fire with so contagious an emotion the state of her wounded heart her helplessness her fleeting hopes and persisting passion her endless and cruel disappointments and her legitimate anger that we eagerly read and read again these ardent and touching pages ever fresh because absolutely true In 1661 Noel Bouton de Chamilly afterward Marquis of Chamilly took service in Portugal He was then twenty five years of age At the same time a convent of the city of Beja sheltered the Franciscan nun who belonged to one of the best families of the country She relates how she saw M de Chamilly for the first time from a balcony of her convent He on his part having been attracted by the charming nun visited the convent several times and gained the heart of the unfortunate Marianna who until her last hour tried vainly to curse the brilliant officer whose desertion so sudden and complete broke her too confiding heart We must read these letters carefully on account of their very simplicity and naive eloquence What exquisite tenderness what profound grief Love regret This is the whole book which will not die because it is pervaded with the suave perfume of youth of passion and sincere tears The Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado,1929 The Portuguese Letters Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues,Mariana Alcoforado,1941
