Love Marriage And Family Ties In The Later Middle Ages:

Love, Marriage, and Family Ties in the Later Middle Ages Isabel Davis, Miriam Müller, Sarah Rees Jones, 2003 This volume addresses the current fashion for research on the family and domesticity in the past. It draws together work from various disciplines historical, art historical and literary with their very different source materials and from a broad geographical area including some countries such as Croatia and Poland which are not usually considered in standard text books on the medieval family. This volume considers the various affective relationships within and around the family and the manner in which those relationships were regulated and ritualized in more public arenas. Despite their disparate approaches and geographical spread these essays share many thematic concerns the ideologies which structured gender roles, inheritance rights, incest law and the ethics of domestic violence for example are all considered here. This collection originates from the Leeds International Medieval Congress in 2001 when the special strand was entitled Domus and Familia and attracted huge participation. This book aims to reflect that richness and variety whilst contributing to an expanding area of historical enquiry.

Routledge Revivals: Women and Gender in Medieval Europe (2006) Margaret Schaus, 2017-07-12 First published in 2006 Women and Gender in Medieval Europe examines the daily reality of medieval women from all walks of life in Europe between 450 CE and 1500 CE. This reference work provides a comprehensive understanding of many aspects of medieval women and gender such as art, economics, law, literature, sexuality, politics, philosophy and religion as well as the daily lives of ordinary women. Masculinity in the middle ages is also addressed to provide important context for understanding women's roles. Additional up to date bibliographies have been included for the 2016 reprint. Written by renowned international scholars and easily accessible in an A to Z format students, researchers and scholars will find this outstanding reference work to be a valuable resource on women in Medieval Europe.

Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus, 2006 Publisher description Women, Identities and Communities in Early Modern Europe Stephanie Tarbin, Susan Broomhall, 2016-12-05 Addressing a key challenge facing feminist scholars today this volume explores the tensions between shared gender identity and the myriad social differences structuring women's lives. By examining historical experiences of early modern women the authors of these essays consider the possibilities for commonalities and the forces dividing women. They analyse individual and collective identities of early modern women tracing the web of power relations emerging from women's social interactions and contemporary understandings of femininity. Essays range from the late medieval period to the eighteenth century, study women in England, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy and Sweden and locate women in a variety of social environments from household, neighbourhood and parish to city, court and nation. Despite differing local contexts the volume highlights continuities in women's experiences and the gendering of power relations across the early modern world. Recognizing the critical power of gender to structure identities and experiences this collection responds to the challenge of the complexity of early modern women's lives. In paying attention to the contexts in which women identified with other women or were seen by others to identify contributors add new depth to our understanding of early modern women's senses of exclusion and belonging Oxford Handbook of Medieval Central Europe Nada Zečević, Daniel Ziemann, 2022 A unique comparative presentation of a region that is often considered forgotten this handbook provides a variety of expertly informed perspectives on life and society in medieval Central Europe and its dynamic interactions across the continent Medieval Single Women Cordelia Beattie, 2007-09-13 The single woman is a troubling and disruptive category Does it denote all unmarried women therefore creating a group which every female was part of at some stage in her life Or were the categories maiden and widow so culturally significant in late medieval England that single woman was a residual category for women seen as anomalous Was the category single man used in an equivalent way and if not why This study offers a way into the complex process of social classification in late medieval England All societies use classifications in order to understand and impose order In this book Cordelia Beattie views classification as a political act an act of power those classifying must make choices about which divisions are most important or about who falls into which category and such choices have repercussions Defining how a group or an individual should be labelled means variables such as social status gender or age are prioritized Rather than isolate gender as a variable this book examines how it relates to other social cleavages Using a variety of approaches from social and cultural history to gender history and medieval studies its original methodology offers an innovative approach to a range of historical texts from pastoral manuals to tax returns and guild registers Medieval Affect, Feeling, and Emotion Glenn D. Burger, Holly A. Crocker, 2019-04-11

Provides a new intersectional investigation of affects feelings and emotions in late Middle English literature Socialising the Child in Late Medieval England, C. 1400-1600 Merridee L. Bailey, 2012 The question and procedures of integrating children into wider society during the medieval and early modern period are debated across a wide range of contemporary texts This study examines ways in which vernacular literature provided a guide to socialising children Rodney Hilton's

Middle Ages Rodney Howard Hilton, Christopher Dyer, Peter R. Coss, Chris Wickham, 2007 This collection of essays based on original research is an exploration of the sort of themes which Rodney Hilton worked on in the light of recent research particularly lord peasant relationships revolts and urban commercial development It aims at summing up where these themes are at present and where they will go in the future The volume was edited by Christopher Dyer Peter Coss and Chris Wickham Women in the Middle Ages: K-Z Katharina M. Wilson, Nadia Margolis, 2004 The encyclopedia covers the myriad experiences and contributions of women in the medieval world Florilegium, 2006 Aspects of Power and Authority in the Middle Ages Brenda Bolton, Christine Meek, 2007 Concepts of power and authority and the relationship between them were fundamental to many aspects of medieval society The essays in this collection present a series of case studies that range widely both chronologically and geographically from Lombard Italy to early modern Iberia and from Anglo Saxon

Norman and later medieval England to twelfth century France and the lands beyond the Elbe in the conversion period While some papers deal with traditional royal princely and ecclesiastical authority they do so in new ways Others examine groups and aspects less obviously connected to power and authority such as the networks of influence centring on royal women or powerful ecclesiastics the power relationships revealed in Anglo Saxon and Old Norse literature or the influence that might be exercised by needy crusaders by Jews with the ability to advance loans or by parish priests on the basis of their local connections An important section discusses the power of the written word whether papal bulls collections of miracle stories or the documents produced in lawsuits The papers in this volume demonstrate the variety and multiplicity of both power and authority and the many ways by which individuals exercised influence and exerted a claim to be heard and respected
