Leon Collier, 2007-06-18 Leon has counseled many young people regarding relationships and discovered that a vast majority of them are really looking for true love but cannot find that special someone It is out of this context that this book was given birth Life is full of twists and turns but with a stroke of spiritual luck love comes knocking at the door when one least expects it Fountain of Love perfectly depicts this idea It is a story about two college students from different worlds whose paths cross and it was love at first sight It is replete with life situations that reflect sacrifice true love humility disappointment and endurance What grabs the attention of the reader in the beginning of the story is the clash between the Ivy League school and a historically black college The main character transferred from Harvard University to Jackson State University because he was certain that the young lady he met there is the woman God chose just for him Their paths crossed at a water fountain and their lives were never the same Half Time Marti Carelli-Gilbert, 1990 Best Friends for Never Adrienne Maria

Vrettos, 2016-05-10 When a friendship pact goes magically awry eleven year old Hattie must figure out how to make amends After Hattie and her three best friends watch one of their classmates publicly defriended in the school cafeteria they make a loyalty pact promising never to mistreat each other But after Hattie unwittingly breaks the pact her friends begin ignoring her In fact they literally don't even know who she is anymore Can Hattie figure out how to break the spell and make things right again Acclaimed author Adrienne Vrettos brings poignancy and gentle humor to this magical story of friendship and loyalty The Greater Love Algernon Sidney Crapsey, 1902 The Cambridge Review, 1903 Vols 1 26 include a

Rhoads, 2016-09-08 The eighth wonder is the first poem and the theme for my first poetry book I reveal in that poem what the eighth wonder is and its value to each person on earth I don't want it revealed until they read that first poem and hopefully they will use that eighth wonder to find the other wonders of the world then read the rest of the Tenth Wonder of the World exercising their eighth wonder Poetry is so personal it is hard to convince readers to take the time to feel the words not just read them The eighth wonder of the world presents something we all possess and don't realize its value So for this third book to resonate with the buyer reader a love of poetry will initially be the reason it sells After that it will be the value to each reader as they capitalize on the eighth wonder we all possess The Rossallian Rossall School (Fleetwood, England), 1894 Celebrating Humanity Jack Bloomfield, 2008-03 CELEBRATING HUMANITY We are a divided people We are a divided planet What would it take to see a world transformed into a place where when we see one another our first thought is this is my brother this is my sister this is a member of my family Jack Bloomfield author columnist and humanitarian believes that our divided world is rooted mainly in unchallenged prejudice ignorance and intolerance In Celebrating Humanity Jack shares his insights through an assortment of his columns on The many faces of prejudice most often found in areas of race religion politics social status and sexual orientation The importance of getting closer to those we don't know don't understand or who we are afraid of The need to educate ourselves when it comes to our racial religious cultural or sexual differences The hope that it is possible to change and that unity and understanding among all people is possible He suggests that we must take our own personal inventory to see where prejudice ignorance or intolerance are alive in our own hearts and lives and do whatever it takes to root them out Bloomfield says For some it will be little more than self awareness and a commitment to change while for others it will take a much deeper study of themselves At whatever level we all must take a look within and when we do healing will be possible and unity and understanding among all people can become a reality The 79th News , 1898 The Elements of Persuasion William A. Covino, 1998 Ninth in the Elements of Composition series The Elements of Persuasion is a brief and inexpensive alternative to longer standard texts The book provides students with a concise introduction to major theories of persuasion analysis of political cultural and literary events that represent the significance and scope of persuasion and a range of questions and exercises to develop critical reading and writing skills An introductory chapter offers a general overview of persuasion illustrating the contributions of Aristotle's Rhetoric J L Austin's speech act theory and Kenneth Burke's dramatism with current examples from political oratory advertising and hypothetical situations as well as extensive analysis of the dramatism of the O J Simpson trial With this foundation students are then able to begin their own analysis of persuasion in public discourse and to assess the elements of persuasion in their own writing Love for an Hour is Love Forever Amelia E.
