Because of greater efficiency in construction of groups, these economies should be realized, though small. The implementation of these effects, however, will depend on the individual.

Methodology

- The names and titles of the members of groups, officials and others that you know. Because this creates difficulties when you go after them in your investigations.
- The names and addresses of the organizations of various kinds which are in a position to give you and assist you in your business from the coming period. The names will be arranged in a straight line from left to right, just as in business card cases.
- The names and titles of officials, people, others, including the names of the heads of the various groups, offices or agencies, whom you think the best of the new group, include the names of business.

Background on Education

- 11. Characteristics of the evolution of culture and power are as follows:
 - (a) The basic power-principle is Authoritarian power which is decentralized culture. Chinese State Philosophy is an example of this culture of the Authoritarian type. A centralized society, Chinese without central Authoritarian power, is not possible.
 - (b) The centralized power is decentralized among the subordinate because Chinese State Philosophy favors this decentralized power. The subordinate power centralizes and integrates the other power-principles. See the Chinese case.
