Love Awaits Courtney Long, Long, 1996-02 Informal and in your face sometimes profound and often profane Love Awaits features straight talking young African American women who openly discuss their relationships with African American men in hopes of establishing a common ground Provocative and revealing Booklist Dearest Brothers, Love Awaits, Much Peace, Your Sisters Courtney Long, 1995-01-01 Interviews with twenty six African American women reveal their concerns on the issue of African American men Gender on Campus Sharon Gmelch, 1998 Gender on Campus is the first book to combine solid analyses of the broad range of gender issues for women in college with realistic approaches to heighten awareness and alleviate problems Written for students the book first clarifies the concept of feminism and then examines gender dynamics in a variety of settings and contexts from the classroom to the sports field and from language to social life Sharon Gmelch probes sexism racism and homophobia on campus and surveys the special issues facing diverse women students The book also addresses issues relating to body image and sexuality Its final chapters analyze the role gender continues to play after college in the media workplace and politics After a thorough discussion of a topic each chapter concludes with possibilities for action What You Can Do as well as a selected bibliography of books videos and organizations that students can consult Gender on Campus is an invaluable resource for students parents and administrators as well as an excellent text for women s studies courses Just My Soul Responding Brian Ward, 2012-10-12 Brian Ward is Lecturer in American History at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne This book is intended for american studies American history postwar social and cultural history political history Black history Race and Ethnic studies and Cultural studies together with the general trade music The Problems of ethnic female Adolescents as portrayed in Toni Morrison's "The Bluest Eye", Maxine Hong Kingston's "The Woman Warrior", Sandra Cisneros' "The House on Mango Street" Anna Watorczyk, 2005-09-26 Inhaltsangabe Abstract African American Chinese American and Mexican American female adolescents are representatives of minority groups in the United States The three groups of ethnic girls were assigned derogative stereotypes by many Euro American writers who did not portray their characters authentically The modern female ethnic authors undertake the battle with stereotypes that are the main source of girls problems They attempt to convince the reader that the lives of young girls cannot be interpreted according to offending images imposed on them This thesis aims to draw attention to the problems encountered by female ethnic adolescents in Toni Morrison s The Bluest Eye 1970 Maxine Hong Kingston s The Woman Warrior 1976 Sandra Cisneros The House on Mango Street 1984 and to portray their survival or collapse in American society Each of the books presented in the present study is a masterpiece of great literary value Toni Morrison was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature in 1993 Sandra Cisneros was the winner of the 1985 Before Columbus American Book Award Maxine Kingston won the National Book Critics Award with The Woman Warrior which was designated as non fiction in 1976 All of these books contribute significantly to the study of ethnic female adolescents The books chosen for the purpose of this thesis portray girls in an adolescent period The adolescents presented in this study are aged between ten and twenty one and are socially economically and politically dependent on their parents or guardians To further complicate matters the experiences of girls of colour are more complex than those encountered by white adolescents As the typical conflicts within the family problems with gender sexual development education and friends are juxtaposed with issues of racism and very often a lower social status In the light of these facts it does not come as a surprise that many ethnic adolescent girls have problems finding their self The first section of the initial chapter of this thesis takes into consideration the stereotypical image of Euro American adolescent girl as it often serves as a contradiction of the popular images of ethnic girls Furthermore the chapter examines stereotypes of African American Chinese American and Mexican American adolescents Despite their variety the stereotypes are the cause of girls victimisation in society The five following chapters analyse the problems more often
