picture of Singapore on the brink of independence With biting honesty and ironic humour this novel brings to life the world of the blind and their sighted helpers More than twenty years after its first publication in 1995 My Love is Blind has retained its enduring appeal as one of Singapore's most extraordinary and memorable novels Asiapac Books is pleased to launch a special edition of this groundbreaking novel updated with an epilogue and a new foreword by Dr Tommy Koh and an afterword by literary critic Gwee Li Sui An excerpt from the afterword My Love is Blind is a deeply rational book because the writing involves distinct technical questions about constructing reality It explains a quality of composure where even at his lowest Choon Guan entertains neither despair nor death Ultimately we must see the heart of this work as a great belief in life what can hold together and transform all the fragments of self

Love Is Blind Nicole Jackson,2016-05-31 Necole is your typical pretty suburban girl She has been sheltered her entire life and is bored with the normality of her world She's in her last year of high school and is college bound Her biggest challenges in life are deciding if she wants to wear her Gucci or Prada sandals to school She thinks she has a new love interest in Mark the new guy in school until she's thrown a curve ball The curve ball comes in the form of Carmelo aka Black Black is from the streets of Fifth Ward He and Necole have little to nothing in common but the two somehow find their way together Many times during their relationship there were signs telling Necole that he wasn't the one for her but she had never been one to deny what she felt in her heart It doesn't take long before Black's gangsta image interferes with Necole's squeaky clean life She and her mother become fast enemies and she relies on Black to save her from the hellacious atmosphere he helped her create Being young and naive isn't going to help Necole after she's torn away from life as she knows it and is tossed into the hood with the sharks She thinks that she's in love and no one can tell her differently That is until the facade fades and she sees how far off course she's really fallen with Black Still she finds it impossible to escape Black and his abusive ways She's blinded by love and has to find her way out

Love Is Blind Anne Baker,2012 A family struggles to survive bereavement bombing and bitter rivalry Patsy Rushton's brother Barney doesn't know the meaning of hard work so when their father tragically dies Patsy has no choice but to save the family's business Meanwhile Barney has got his girlfriend pregnant and feeling trapped he abandons her and leaves Merseyside altogether But trouble follows Barney wherever he goes and when he learns of his sister's growing success he can't help feeling resentful Why is their mother Beatrice so quick to forgive him Surely she can't be blind to his faults As Patsy is to discover there's something else about Barney that is frightening her mother so much she has never dared to speak of it before
