Indigeneity and the Decolonizing Gaze Robert Stam, 2023-01-26 Against the long historical backdrop of 1492 Columbus and the Conquest Robert Stam's wide-ranging study traces a trajectory from the representation of indigenous peoples by others to self-representation by indigenous peoples often as a form of resistance and rebellion to colonialist or neoliberal capitalism across an eclectic range of forms of media arts and social philosophy. Spanning national and transnational media in countries including the US, Brazil, Canada, France, Germany, and Italy, Stam orchestrates a dialogue between the western mediated gaze on the Indian and the indigenous gaze itself especially as incarnated in the burgeoning movement of indigenous media that is the use of audio-visual digital media for the social and cultural purposes of indigenous peoples themselves. Drawing on examples from cinema, literature, music, video, painting, and stand-up comedy, Stam shows how indigenous artists, intellectuals, and activists are responding to the multiple crises: climatological, economic, political, racial, and cultural, confronting the world. Significant attention is paid to the role of arts-based activism in supporting the struggle of indigenous artistic activism of the Yanomami people specifically to save the Amazon forest and the planet.

Themes in Latin American Cinema Keith John Richards, 2020-03-20 This updated and expanded edition gives critical analyses of 23 Latin American films from the last 20 years, including the addition of four films from Bolivia. Explored throughout the text are seven crucial themes: the indigenous image, sexuality, childhood, female protagonists, crime and corruption, fratricidal wars, and writers as characters. Designed for general and scholarly interest as well as a guide for teachers of Hispanic culture or Latin American film and literature, the book provides a sweeping look at the logistical circumstances of filmmaking in the region along with the criteria involved in interpreting a Latin American film. It includes interviews with and brief biographies of influential filmmakers along with film synopses, production details, and credits, transcripts of selected scenes, and suggestions for discussion and analysis.

Mother and Motherland in Jamaica Kincaid Sabrina Brancato, 2005 This book introduces students to the work of the Caribbean writer Jamaica Kincaid. The author offers a close analysis of six of Kincaid's works, reading the central theme of the love-hate relationship between mother and daughter as a metaphor for the dialectic of power and powerlessness governing nature and history. Placed in the specific context of the Caribbean in colonial times, the mother-daughter plot reads as an allegory of the conflict between the motherland and the colony. The association is played out at two levels, with the nurturing figure of childhood embodying the African-rooted Caribbean world and the scornful mother of adolescence evoking the subjugating colonial power. Two conflicting worlds the African and the European meet in the duplicitous figure of the mother      Restorative Justice and Practice in US Education Kenneth R. Roth, Felix Kumah-Abiwu, Zachary S.
