Mothers Time:

Class Work: Mothers' Involvement Diane Reay, 2005-08-16 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company     Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2013-02-01 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes     Bourdieu and Education Michael Grenfell, David James, 1998 This text details the practical applications of Bourdieu's theories in a series of specific pedagogic research studies showing how his ideas can be put into practice. Language, gender, career decision making and the experience of higher education students are all covered. Questions are also raised concerning research methodology. The authors examine Bourdieu's interest in the position of the researcher within the research process. Bourdieu's influence is traced in aspects both of theory and practice. Finally, principles, approaches, methods and techniques that may be derived from Bourdieu are suggested and assessed for practical use in research.

Motherhood, Absence and Transition Trish Green, 2016-04-15 The vast majority of academic texts on motherhood have focused on women's experiences of the early years of mothering while texts covering the topic of home leaving have tended to privilege the young person's experience. Combining lively empirical material with an illuminating social theoretical framework, Trish Green's book addresses the much neglected area of the mother's experience of separation from her child at the time of their home leaving. The book makes clear how the mother's experience of separation is silenced first by the socio-cultural constructions of motherhood per se, second by the privileging of the child's transition to adulthood and third by a neglect of the relational dimension of this particular life course transition. In doing so, the book makes an important contribution to debates on ageing, identity and the life course and will be of great interest to sociologists with various academic interests.

Gender Equality Janet C. Gornick, Marcia K. Meyers, 2020-05-05 In the labor market and workplace, anti-discrimination rules, affirmative action policies and pay equity procedures exercise a direct effect on gender relations. But what can be done to influence the ways that men and women allocate tasks and responsibilities at home? In Gender Equality Volume VI in the Real Utopias series, social scientists Janet C. Gornick and Marcia K. Meyers propose a set of policies: paid family leave provisions, working time regulations and early childhood education and care designed to foster more egalitarian family divisions of labor by strengthening men's ties at home and women's attachment to paid work. Their policy proposal is followed by a series of commentaries both critical and supportive from a group of distinguished scholars and a concluding essay in which Gornick and Meyers respond to a debate that is a timely and valuable contribution to egalitarian politics.

How Children Learn from Parents and Parenting Others in Formal and Informal Settings: International and Cultural Perspectives, 2nd Edition Yvette Renee Harris, Claudio Longobardi, 2020-07-28 For several decades, parent-child cognitive interaction researchers have acknowledged that children learn cognitive skills in the context of their social and early environments. These cognitive skills are often imparted to the children by parents or parenting others in formal or informal settings. Thus, for example, such informal settings as dinner table conversations, walks through grocery stores museums or neighborhoods become rich laboratories for children to learn varied cognitive skills ranging from numeracy concepts and language The way in which those learning opportunities are provided by parents structured by parents and scaffolded by parents may well vary depending on culture and other socio demographic variables and may well vary depending on formal or informal settings The aim of this Research Topic is to bring together scholarship from both global north and global south contexts which explores how children learn via parental involvement in formal and informal settings Publisher s note In this 2nd edition the following article has been added Harris YR and Longobardi C 2020 Editorial How Children Learn From Parents and Parenting Others in Formal and Informal Settings International and Cultural Perspectives Front Psychol 11 1026 doi 10 3389/fpsyg 2020 01026
