interested in research on L2 motivation in general and within the Japanese context in particular as well as graduate and postgraduate researchers Motivation from Within Stanley Agwu, 2015 Second Language Learning Motivation in a European Context: The Case of Hungary Kata Csizér, 2021-01-04 This book provides an overview of second language L2 motivation research in a specific European context Hungary which has proved to offer an important laboratory for such research as a number of major political changes over the past 30 years have created a changing background for L2 learning in an increasingly globalized world The book provides an overview of theoretical research on L2 motivation together with detailed information on large scale L2 motivation studies in Hungary Further it presents a meta analysis of the most important investigations and qualitative data on teachers views regarding success in L2 learning In turn the interdisciplinary nature of L2 motivation is taken into account and relevant antecedent constructs to L2 motivation are investigated Lastly the book outlines possible future directions for L2 motivation research Motivation and Work Performance. The Effects of Intrinsic and Extrinsic Motivation on Work Performance Jan U., 2021-07-21 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Employee Motivation Employee Satisfaction grade 1 3 University of Mannheim language English abstract The purpose of this paper is to investigate the effects of intrinsic and extrinsic motivation on work performance within the R D environment and provide practical recommendations Substantial research has been conducted to investigate the construct of motivation and to validate its impact on core business outcomes within varying environments According to Rani and Lenka 2012 the motivational process affects an individual s strength and persistence of behaviour Thus motivated individuals are activated to behave in a more creative productive and persistent way Prevailing literature validates this positive effect For example Deci and Ryan 2008a argue that there is a significant link between motivation and positive work related outcomes such as psychological well being and work performance Considering this convincing evidence further research tried to investigate this relationship within varying settings An area that has aroused major attention is the R D environment Within this context managers face several obstacles in establishing high levels of motivation Clarke 2002 mentions for example the differing values and expectations of R D specialists the uncertainty of outcomes and the difficulty in measuring the results For high levels of motivation and performance to occur managers need to respond to the needs of the R D professionals without losing sight of the company s major objectives Based on the work of Deci Vallerand Pelletier and Ryan 1991 and their distinction between intrinsic and extrinsic motivation studies in the R D management literature validate the importance of both motivational constructs within this context However in practice organizations like BMW may be incentivized to primarily focus on extrinsic rewards Extrinsic incentive systems such as salary increases or bonuses can easily be established fairly measured and provide a clear link between the employees monetary motives and the organizations objectives Further intrinsic motivation may be neglected due to difficulties and increased efforts of implementing such incentives As a result of this neglect of their workers intrinsic needs and desires the motivation within the
