Motty's Vow Diane Wahn Shotton,2025-02-18 A Daughter s Promise A Nation at War A Family s Struggle to Survive I was fourteen the day my world changed Papa rode off to fight for the Union leaving Mama a frail woman with four children and no money behind Overnight the weight of our family s survival fell on my shoulders When Mama took sick with consumption a death knell in those days I made a vow I would keep us together no matter the cost Even if it meant growing up too fast Even if it meant risking everything But promises don t fill empty bellies And the streets of Cincinnati during the war are no place for a girl with nothing left to lose I just have to hold on Everything will be fine if Papa would just come home Inspired by true events Motty s Vow is a gripping Civil War era tale of resilient women in history family loyalty and one girl s fight to keep her family together against all odds If you love stories of courage sacrifice and the fierce love that holds families together Motty s Vow belongs on your shelf
