Wanderer Between Two Worlds Saral Sarkar,2025-01-13 In his autobiography Saral Sarkar takes us along on a journey through his interesting and eventful life He is one of the few persons who experienced the first full half of his life in a poor third world country India and the other half in a very developed European country Germany And he experienced these two countries intensively Unlike so many other immigrants he did not come to Germany for economic reasons but initially in the 1960s because of his love for the German language being trained there as teacher for German and then later in the 1980s he stayed there because of his love for his wife Maria Mies a famous German feminist and sociologist From an early age he was very interested in political issues and movements initially mainly from the left spectrum but later from the early 1970s on his concern for ecological issues came to the foreground The famous book The Limits to Growth from 1972 which influenced an entire generation and served as an important impetus for the ecology movement was also a turning point in his personal thinking He experienced the rise of the green movement and the Green Party in Germany at first hand but also left the Greens in disappointment in the second half of the 1980s But it was not only political activism that shaped his life From the 1980s onwards he became an increasingly prominent author on environmental and political issues with his two major works Eco Socialism or Eco Capitalism A Critical Analysis of Humanity's Fundamental Choices and The Crises of Capitalism A Different Study of Political Economy It is no exaggeration to say that he is one of the most important contemporary thinkers on eco political issues one who coined the term eco socialism in a consequent and clear way A Romance of Two Worlds Marie Corelli,1898 A Romance of Two Worlds starts with a young heroine in first person telling her story of a debilitating illness that includes depression and thoughts of suicide Her doctor is unable to help her and sends her off on a holiday where she meets a mystical character by the name of Raffello Cellini a famous Italian artist Cellini offers her a strange potion which immediately puts her into a tranquil slumber in which she experiences divine visions Upon waking she craves more Later she meets her unnamed guardian angel who whisks her through infinite solar systems faster than a shooting star while human spirits fly by like gossamer silk He shares the truth of religion and the secret of human destiny but still she longs for more She comes to understand God as pure light and pure love but it is not enough that she should see and hear these things from the touch of an angel She wants to master this ability on her own and seeks a oneness with God through a series of meditative disciplines while locked away in a monastery Wikipedia My Life in Two Worlds Francis Neilson,1953 'Twixt Two Worlds John Stephen Farmer,1886 Two Worlds are Ours Hugh Macmillan,1880 The Nation ,1925 Rational Spirituality and Divine Virtue in Plato Michael LaFargue,2016-04-28 Michael LaFargue presents an important and accessible aspect of Plato's legacy largely overlooked today a variety of personal spirituality based on reason and centered on virtue Plato's Virtue Forms are transcendent in their goodness ideals that Platonists can use to improve character and become like God so far as is humanly possible LaFargue constructs a model of inductive Socratic reasoning capable of acquiring knowledge of these perfect Virtue Forms then scales back claims about these Forms to what can be supported by this kind of reasoning This is a critical theory but also a pluralistic one that accommodates modern cultural diversity A how to chapter provides detailed descriptions of the rules of Socratic reasoning basic to this spirituality which any interested individual can practice today LaFargue supports his interpretation by a close reading of the Greek text of key passages in Plato's dialogues The work also undertakes a broader philosophical consideration discussing the philosophical foundations proposed for this Platonism in relation to the thought of G E Moore Ludwig Wittgenstein Martin Heidegger Friedrich Nietzsche and Richard Rorty
