Learning to Smoke Jason Hughes, 2003-02-15 Why do people smoke Taking a unique approach to this question Jason Hughes moves beyond the usual focus on biological addiction that dominates news coverage and public health studies and invites us to reconsider how social and personal understandings of smoking crucially affect the way people experience it Learning to Smoke examines the diverse sociological and cultural processes that have compelled people to smoke since the practice was first introduced to the West during the sixteenth century Hughes traces the transformations of tobacco and its use over time from its role as a hallucinogen in Native American shamanistic ritual to its use as a prophylactic against the plague and a cure for cancer by early Europeans and finally to the current view of smoking as a global pandemic He then analyzes tobacco from the perspective of the individual user exploring how its consumption relates to issues of identity and life changes Comparing sociocultural and personal experiences Hughes ultimately asks what the patterns of tobacco use mean for the clinical treatment of smokers and for public policy on smoking Pointing the way then to a more learned and sophisticated understanding of tobacco use this study will prove to be essential reading for anyone interested in the history of smoking and the sociology of addiction     The Creative Argument Thomas Girshin,2024-04-22 The Creative Argument sets itself apart from its competitors by presenting a series of compelling works of literary nonfiction that challenge what students think they know about arguments Each chapter begins with an engaging argument from a work of nonfiction followed by an in depth yet accessible analysis of a key aspect of argumentation Suitable for both courses in argument and first year writing the principles and strategies outlined in the text help students become more creative and critical as rhetoricians both inside the classroom and out     School Education ,1884     Not Like the Others: The Prophecy Travis Simmons,2024-05-06 Murder Something that happens an average of 63 times a day in the United States Hidden within those deaths are unsolved cases fitting a particular profile Bodies with severe scarring and drained of blood Killings of this nature have become cold cases as there has been no evidence left behind Detective Maxwell Thorn specializes in these cases and has now brought said cases to close in four major cities in the last few years Having just finished in Atlanta a string of murders and missing now plagues Boston Detective Thorn is called to Boston after his most recent victory but not before a new wrinkle develops on his way out of Atlanta Unknown to the killers Detective Thorn is a hunter Not just of criminals but one of the most dangerous predators of humankind The killer he searches for are unlike most His predators were created and have been discussed for over 600 years There is more to his cases and hunting than meets the eye Max is the last of his kind and will find a prophecy unknown to him hangs over his head Max will soon face his greatest challenge and discover who has orchestrated the string of murders that have led him to his newest destination is responsible for his previous stops Hunters have come and gone through the centuries But Max will uncover his destiny Will Max be up to this monumental confrontation or will he fall like all before him About the Author Born in California but raised in a small town in Alabama Travis Simmons has had a lifelong need and desire to create Beginning with new superheroes and wrestlers of his creation to poetry short stories and even wrestling booking Travis has an affinity for vampires and the supernatural He has enjoyed those tales and stories since childhood He takes that love and puts it into this story one that has had several iterations over the last 25 years Travis has brought them all together for Not Like the Others When not creating the author enjoys spending time with his wife and three children as well as their dogs family and friends Along with his love for creating Travis follows professional wrestling MMA football and baseball and never misses a big movie     Handbook of Nature-study for Teachers and
