The scenario titled Start Over Love, starring Serkan and Menekşe, tells an unforgettable love story. Serkan is a man in deep debt and difficult circumstances. One day, he is offered to participate in a dangerous experiment in exchange for paying off his debts. This experiment involves risks that could result in death. Menekşe, feeling indebted due to causing someone's death in the past, also agrees to participate in this experiment, much like Serkan. Their paths cross for the first time in a hospital. During their temporary amnesia caused by the experiment, they feel a deep connection to each other. However, after recovering from amnesia, they don't remember any of the experiences they shared during the experiment. Over time, Serkan and Menekşe's paths cross again, and this time, they fall in love with each other just like during the time of the experiment. Although they don't remember the experiences they had, the traces of passion and love in their hearts are still alive. In a world where everything has been erased, their love remains unforgettable. Start Over Love tells an impactful story of an unforgettable love and how people can come together in the face of difficulties.
