The Quest, 1910      Quest George Robert Stow Mead, 1910      Stories, Myths, Chants, and Songs of the Kuna Indians Joel Sherzer, 2015-02-04 The Kuna Indians of Panama probably best known for molas their colorful appliqué blouses also have a rich literary tradition of oral stories and performances One of the largest indigenous groups in the South American tropics the majority of them about 70 000 reside in Kuna Yala a string of island and mainland villages stretching along the Caribbean coast It is here that Joel Sherzer lived among them photographing and recording their verbal performances which he feels are representative of the beauty complexity and diversity of the oral literary traditions of the indigenous peoples of Latin America This book is organized into three types of texts humorous and moralistic stories myths and magical chants and women's songs While quite different from one another they share features characteristic of Kuna literature as a whole including appreciation of their environment and a remarkable knowledge of their plants and animals a belief in spirits as an important component of their world in curing magic and aesthetics and especially great humor and a sense of play Vividly illustrated by a Kuna artist and accompanied by photographs that lend a sense of being present at the performances the texts provide readers with a unique aesthetic perspective on this rich culture while preserving an endangered and valuable indigenous oral tradition

Antiquarian Bookman, 1956      Resignation and Ecstasy: The Moral Geometry of Collective Self-Destruction Mark P. Worrell, 2020-08-10 Once again for the first time Marx and Durkheim join forces while exploring the moral economy of neoliberalism Resignation and Ecstasy provides a fresh perspective on the immortal vortex of sacred energies pulsating beneath the peculiar logic of modern accumulation Relying on dialectical methods classical sociology and psychoanalysis are reconstituted within an Hegelian social ontology to differentiate the ephemeral from the eternal aspects of social life      THE ENCYCLOPEDIA AMERICANA, 1919

Theology and Literature after Postmodernity Zoë Lehmann Imfeld, Peter Hampson, Alison Milbank, 2015-03-12 This volume deploys theology in a reconstructive approach to contemporary literary criticism to validate and exemplify theological readings of literary texts as a creative exercise It engages in a dialogue with interdisciplinary approaches to literature in which theology is alert and responsive to the challenges following postmodernism and postmodern literary criticism It demonstrates the scope and explanatory power of theological readings across various texts and literary genres Theology and Literature after Postmodernity explores a reconstructive approach to reading and literary study in the university setting with contributions from interdisciplinary scholars worldwide      The Market Economy and Christian Ethics Peter H.

Sedgwick, 1999-10-07 Peter Sedgwick explores the relation of a theology of justice to that of human identity in the context of the market economy and engages with critics of capitalism and the market He examines three aspects of the market economy first how does it shape personal identity through consumption and the experience of paid employment in relation to the work ethic Second what impact does the global economy have on local cultures Finally as manufacturing changes out of all recognition through the impact of technology and global competition what is the effect in terms of poverty Drawing on the response of the Catholic Church both in the United States and in papal encyclicals to the market economy from 1985 1991 Sedgwick argues that its involvement deserves to be better known Moreover he recommends that the Churches remain part of the debate in reforming and humanizing the market economy Quarterly Index of Additions to the Milwaukee

The Myth of Sisyphus Elliott M. Simon,2007 The myth of Sisyphus symbolizes the archetypal process of becoming without the consolation of absolute achievement It is both a poignant reflection of the human condition and a prominent framing text for classical medieval and renaissance theories of human perfectibility In this unique reading of the myth through classical philosophies pagan and Christian religious doctrines and medieval and renaissance literature we see Sisyphus the most cunning of human beings attempting to transcend his imperfections empowered by his imagination to renew his faith in the infinite potentialities of human excellence BOOK JACKET The Bookseller ,1885 The Athenæum ,1910 Immanuel ,1987 The Athenaeum ,1910 Judaism and Christianity Crawford Howell Toy,1891
