N Y Life Times Ten:

N.Y. Life Times Ten Stephen Salbod, 2001 When does a person decide to become a writer At age ten In high school At college graduation Not for this group The need to earn a living cancelled that possibility Later on the demands of family and home rendered this goal even more unlikely At retirement however the curtain rose on a new setting The children were grown the mortgage was paid and the time was available Writing skills were unquestionably rusty Our group though had one distinct advantage over other would be writers With an age range of 55 to 89 we had a wealth of experiences on which to draw We set realistic goals Not the Great American Novel yet but family histories to leave for our grandchildren We told of holidays and days of decision memories evoked by colors and smells and people and places important to use We met weekly for two hours read our works and critiqued on another s We came to realize that the more we wrote the better we wrote This was also recognized by the judges for Reflections the UFT s annual publication of the best works issued from the creative writing classes The group from Queens us won most of the places We sought additional modes of expression A few of us wrote poetry others short stories We organized some of our work about the City as theme and herewith our first book

Truth from the Earth Art Shotwell, 2015-11-03 Written in semi autobiographical style the book intertwines personal testimony scripture and the nature of God The author shows how seemingly trivial or isolated events combine with sad or challenging circumstances over a period of years or even decades to work together for good according to Romans 8 28 These same events may be key factors necessary for us to experience in order to fulfill the plans and purposes God has for nations or individuals as described in Jeremiah 29 11 The book addresses issues which are either unclear or unmentioned in the Bible These include the fate of infants or small children who die before having faith or being baptized what happens to friends relatives or others we love who may have gone through life without knowing Christ as their personal savior and entire populations who have never heard of Christ over many centuries The book identifies the unpardonable sin in a manner that removes all doubts and questions The book also confronts serious misinterpretation of scripture in what the author calls Gods Greatest Truth or Satans Greatest Deception Finally the author compares the Commentary on Habakkuk uncovered in the Dead Sea Scrollsto events in modern history showing that this prophecy of things which were destined for the last generation have been fulfilled Additionally he describes in detail another archeological discovery yet to be revealed which can be verified scientifically and will be incontrovertible proof to Jews and gentiles alike that God is real and Jesus is Lord and Savior
