Nikolai Gogol Vladimir

Vladimirovich Nabokov, 1961 This biography begins with Gogol's death and ends with his birth an inverted structure typical of both Gogol and Nabokov The biographer proceeds to establish the relationship between Gogol and his novels especially with regard to nose consciousness a peculiar feature of Russian life and letters which finds its apotheosis in Gogol's own life and prose There are more expressions and proverbs concerning the nose in Russian than in any other language in the world Nabokov's style in this biography is comic but as always leads to serious issues in this case an appreciation of the distinctive sense of the physical inherent in Gogol's work Nabokov describes how Gogol's life and literature mingled and explains the structure and style of Gogol's prose in terms of the novelist's life
