Nag Hammadi Library After Fifty Years:

The Nag Hammadi Library after Fifty Years Turner, McGuire, 2020-10-26 This volume contains 22 papers originally delivered at the Society of Biblical Literature's 1995 commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the discovery of the Nag Hammadi Library. Of these papers five focus on the theme Past Present and Future Research on the Nag Hammadi Codices J M Robinson S Emmel B A Pearson H M Schenke E M Yamauchi thirteen stem from three seminars respectively devoted to the Apocryphon of John M Waldstein F Wisse K L King and S LaPorta the Gospel of Thomas and the Thomasine tradition P H Poirier P H Sellew J M Sevrin I Dunderberg S R Johnson A DeConick and the Gospel of Philip E Pagels E Thomassen M Turner and two deal with the Valentinian school C Marksches L Painchaud T Janz The Non-Canonical Gospels Paul Foster, 2008-09-11 This book brings together a collection of chapter length treatments on the most significant of the non canonical gospels. A particular strength of the volume is that it draws upon the research of leading experts in the field and clearly and concisely communicates the most hotly contested issues surrounding each text. While a key function of each chapter is to make the current academic debates accessible to a wider audience these treatments are not simply overviews or survey articles. They also present fresh perspectives on a number of points and critically assess the most recent trends in scholarship. As such they will provide an ideal entry point for advanced undergraduate courses and taught Masters programmes. The structure of the book is divided up in an easily useable format. There is an introduction which underscores the significance of the non canonical texts both for the original readers and for contemporary audiences. This chapter by Keith Elliott also traces important moments in the reception of a number of these texts both in art and literature. Next follows the main sequence of chapters dealing with individual texts. Texts such as the Gospel of Thomas the Gospel of Peter and the Gospel of Mary are treated first due to the impact they have had to varying degrees on Historical Jesus research. Other texts are grouped in various subgroups the two infancy gospels follow each other and the more fragmentary texts are also closely linked in the arrangement. The book presents one of the most comprehensive and up to date discussions of a range of texts that continue to be of interest to scholars and wider readers. The discussions should clarify a number of popular misconceptions and allow for a more informed debate. The scholars who contribute to this collection represent an eclectic range of views and theological outlooks. No attempt has been made to impose a prescribed perspective. Rather the leading experts have been consulted to produce fresh and stimulating treatments. The book will include contributions from Andrew Gregory Oxford Christopher Tuckett Cambridge April DeConick Rice and Simon Gathercole Aberdeen among others.

Gnostic Religion in Antiquity R. van den Broek, 2013-01-24 An examination of Gnostic religion in Late Antiquity within its historical and religious context using Greek Latin and Coptic sources Snapshots of Evolving Traditions Liv Ingeborg Lied, Hugo Lundhaug, 2017-01-23 Scholars of early Christian and Jewish literature have for many years focused on interpreting texts in their hypothetical original forms and contexts while largely overlooking important aspects of the surviving manuscript evidence and the culture that produced it This volume of essays seeks to remedy this situation by focusing on the material aspects of the manuscripts themselves and the fluidity of textual transmission in a manuscript culture With an emphasis on method and looking at texts as they have been used and transmitted in manuscripts this book discusses how we may deal with textual evidence that can often be described as mere snapshots of fluid textual traditions that have been intentionally adapted to fit ever shifting contexts The emphasis of the book is on the contexts and interests of users and producers of texts as they appear in our surviving manuscripts rather than on original authors and their intentions and the essays provide both important correctives to former textual interpretations as well as new insights into the societies and individuals that copied and read the texts in the manuscripts that have actually been preserved to us Mary Magdalene Robin Griffith-Jones,2014-07-14 The figure of Mary Magdalen has fascinated and perplexed people for centuries She is portrayed in the Gospels as a neurotic woman possibly with a past yet she is the first to encounter the risen Christ and he charges her with the responsibility of proclaiming the resurrection She is therefore Christianity's first evangelist a difficult concept for churches with exclusively male hierarchies who prefer to think of her as just a reformed prostitute The belief that Mary Magdalen was married to Jesus and that the Church has tried to suppress this truth was not invented in recent years but is almost as old as Christianity itself This gives a grand tour through 2000 years history art and tradition with surprises and discoveries all the way

Abstracts

American Academy of Religion,American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1998 Sacred Marriages Martti Nissinen,Risto Uro,2008 The title of this volume Sacred Marriages consciously plays with the traditional concept of sacred marriage but the plural form sacred marriages gives the reader an idea that something more is at stake here than a monomaniacal idea of manifestations deriving from a single prototype Following the guidelines of one of the contributors Ruben Zimmermann the editors tentatively define sacred marriage as a real or symbolic union of two complementary entities imagined as gendered in a religious context Sacred marriages plural then refers to various expressions of this kind of union in different cultures that seek to overcome to cite Zimmermann again the great dualism of human and cosmic existence The subtitle indicates that the contributors are primarily interested in different aspects of the divine human sexual metaphor that is the imagining and reenactment of a gendered relationship between the human and divine worlds This metaphor which is essentially about relationship rather than sexual acts can find textual ritual mythical and social expressions in different times and places

Indeed the sacred marriage ritual itself should be considered not a manifestation of the sacralized power of sexuality experienced in sexual intercourse but one way of objectifying the divine human sexual metaphor The Resurrection of Jesus in the Gospel of John Craig R. Koester, Reimund Bieringer, 2008 Jesus resurrection plays a central role in the narrative and theology of John's gospel. In these essays leading Johannine scholars explore the relationship of Jesus resurrection to his signs, crucifixion and the faith of later generations. The embodied quality of the resurrection and its importance for Johannine eschatology and life within the Christian community receive special attention. Studies explore the interplay between the Farewell Discourses and the resurrection narratives, the role of John 21 Jesus ascension and Jesus commission to forgive and retain sins. The essays give a rich sense of the many facets of Jesus resurrection and its importance for the study of John's gospel and Christian theology.

BOOK JACKET A Feminist Companion to John Amy-Jill Levine, Marianne Blickenstaff, 2003 the first of 2 volumes that deal with the Fourth Gospel. The contents include an introduction, Jesus, Women and conversation in the Fourth Gospel, The Divine Trickster, A tale of two weddings in John, Cultural Stereotypes of Women and Public and Private Space from back cover.

The Emergence of the Christian Religion Birger Albert Pearson, 1997 In this book Birger Pearson argues for the study of Christianity as one of the religions of the world. He proposes that the study of the New Testament and other early Christian literature be moved out of the realm of theology and into the area of comparative research in religion. The book therefore addresses the problematic of Christian origins that is the historical process by which a new religion Christianity emerges out of an older one, Second Temple Judaism. Included are studies ranging from the prehistory of Christianity, Jesus together with an illuminating, lengthy and detailed critical analysis of the work of the Jesus Seminar and the trends in current North American gospel research. It reflects into the New Testament and up to the fourth century.

Paul and the Corinthians Margaret Eleanor Thrall, 2003 This volume contains seminal articles by an international team of Pauline specialists on 1 and 2 Corinthians. The book comprises four sections: Text and Traditions, Culture, Conflict and the Rhetoric of Paul, Theology in the Letters and Sects, Polemic and the Apologetics of Paul.
