Edward Henry Knight

Nail A Rose:

A Nail, A Rose Madeleine Bourdouxhe, 2019-10-01 Enchanting stories of women's inner lives by the rediscovered Belgian author Madeleine Bourdouxhe. The seven stories in A Nail A Rose confirm Madeleine Bourdouxhe's status as an underappreciated master of the form. Like her critically lauded novels Marie and La Femme de Giles, these stories tunnel into the conflicted hearts of their female characters in fluid beautiful prose. These are stories of longing and dissatisfaction of mundane lives ruptured by strange currents of feeling. A woman wandering alone and heartbroken is first attacked and then romantically pursued by a stranger who returns to her house to offer her gifts. A maid wears her mistress's expensive coat to meet her lover but finds herself more preoccupied with fantasies of intimacy with her mistress. With piercing insight and candour, Bourdouxhe offers seven unforgettable portraits of the expansive inner lives of ordinary women.

The study of art history ranging from ceramics and oil paintings to architecture and as varied in time style and medium as Medieval manuscripts, Baroque printmaking and modern sculpture has spawned a vocabulary as varied as its component parts. The vocabulary describes not only the objects of art but such complex subjects as the processes and materials from which they are made and the new concepts applied by successive critics. The long history of documenting art has produced many different types of record keeping and descriptions from museums archives slide and photograph collections to bibliographic collection in libraries and printed indexes.
