Travel and Ethics Corinne Fowler, Charles Forsdick, Ludmilla Kostova, 2013-12-13 Despite the recent increase in scholarly activity regarding travel writing and the accompanying proliferation of publications relating to the form its ethical dimensions have yet to be theorized with sufficient rigour Drawing from the disciplines of anthropology linguistics literary studies and modern languages the contributors in this volume apply themselves to a number of key theoretical questions pertaining to travel writing and ethics ranging from travel as commoditization to encounters with minority languages under threat Taken collectively the essays assess key critical legacies from parallel disciplines to the debate so far such as anthropological theory and postcolonial criticism Also considered and of equal significance are the ethical implications of the form s parallel genres of writing such as ethnography and journalism As some of the contributors argue innovations in these genres have important implications for the act of theorizing travel writing itself and the mode and spirit in which it continues to be conducted In the light of such innovations how might ethical theory maintain its critical edge The Place-names of Sussex Allen Mawer, Frank Merry Stenton, 1930 Prolog by Example Helder Coelho, Jose C. Cotta, 2012-12-06 Prolog has a declarative style A predicate definition includes both the input and output parameters and it allows a programmer to define a desired result without being concerned about the detailed instructions of how it is to be computed Such a declarative language offers a solution to the software crisis because it is shorter and more concise more powerful and understandable than present day languages Logic highlights novel aspects of programming namely using the same program to compute a relation and its inverse and supporting deductive retrieval of information This is a book about using Prolog Its real point is the examples introduced from Chapter 3 onwards and so a Prolog programmer does not need to read Chapters 1 and 2 which are oriented more to teachers and to students respectively The book is recommended for introductory and advanced university courses where students may need to remember the basics about logic programming and Prolog before starting doing Chapters 1 and 2 were also kept for the sake of unity of the whole material In Chapter 1 a teaching strategy is explained based on the key concepts of Prolog which are novel aspects of programming Prolog is enhanced as a computer programming language used for solving problems that involve objects and the relationships between objects This chapter provides a pedagogical tour of prescriptions for the organization of Prolog programs by pointing out the main drawbacks novices may encounter Davis Eleanor Marian Davis, 1985 Charles Davies b ca 1706 emigrated from England to Philadelphia and married Hannah Matson in 1732 1733 Descendants chiefly spelling the surname Davis and relatives lived in Pennsylvania North Carolina Ohio Indiana Iowa Nebraska Kansas Oklahoma California and elsewhere Perl for Beginners, Stopping Wars James D D Smith, 2018-03-13 This is an attempt to catalogue the reasons why some wars are so difficult to stop even when both sides want the fighting to end Through detailed case studies the book assesses the obstacles and points toward solutions for ending wars more quickly Each chapter is devoted to a specific obstacle which the author analyzes and then illustrates with case studies drawing on such conflicts as the Iran Iraq War the Gulf War and the Yugoslav wars He assesses the role of third parties in trying to persuade people to stop fighting and examines what happens when obstacles to a cease fire cannot be overcome A Dictionary of Hymnology John Julian, 1892 Proceedings of the Biological Society of Washington Biological Society of Washington, 1913 The Pentateuch and Book of Joshua Critically Examined: The Pentateuch and book of Joshua compared with the other Hebrew scriptures John William Colenso, 1879 Systema Avium Ethiopicarum William Lutley Sclater, 1930 A General Survey of the History of the Canon of the New Testament Brooke Foss Westcott, 1889 Lists of Sanskrit Manuscripts in Private Libraries of Southern India, 1885 Minutes - United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.
