Naming The Father Legacies Genealogies And Explorations Of Fatherhood In Modern And Contemporary Literature:

Naming the Father Eva Paulino Bueno, Terry Caesar, William Hummel, 2000-01-01 Naming the Father is a collection of essays on the subject of fatherhood its enduring power its secret ruses its unsettling provocations Despite the considerable critical attention devoted to motherhood in literature and despite the late twentieth century focus on patriarchy there is surprisingly no comparable collection on fatherhood This volume was born of the conclusion that critics of modern and contemporary literature may comprehend the father too little for presuming to have comprehended patriarchy so much Naming the Father begins with a series of nonfiction essays that attempts to locate the missing father in the individual experiences of three scholars at various stages of their careers The following thematically grouped sections recover and discuss fatherhood in fields ranging from Caribbean fiction to African American drama and in the work of authors as diverse as Rebecca West Anzia Yezierska William Burroughs and Stephen Wright as well as Henry James and James Joyce A variety of critical approaches from biographical to deconstructive activate and engage with the cultural national and global implications of fatherhood for the family and for the future of literary studies Scholars and students of contemporary literature cultural studies and gender studies will find this book a fascinating and invaluable collection Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities Josep M. Armengol, 2010 Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities demonstrates how contemporary U S novelist Richard Ford winner of the Pulitzer Prize for literature rewrites gender and in particular masculinity from highly subversive and innovative perspectives Josep M Armengol analyzes the construction as well as the deconstruction of masculinity in all of Ford s major fictional texts to date ranging from A Piece of My Heart to The Sportswriter to The Lay of the Land Given its simultaneous critique of traditional masculinity and its depiction of alternative models of being a man Ford s fiction is shown to be particularly interesting from a men s studies perspective which aims not only to undermine patriarchal masculinity but also to look for new non hierarchical and more egalitarian models of being a man in contemporary U S culture and literature By framing Ford s contemporary representations of masculinity within a more general context of American literature this book reveals how his texts continue along a trajectory of earlier American fiction while they also re examine masculinity in new more complex ways Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities contributes to the much needed revision of men and masculinities in U S literature and especially Richard Ford s fiction where constructions of gender and masculinity remain paradoxically enough largely unexplored Rewriting White Masculinities in Contemporary Fiction and Film Josep M. Armengol, 2024-03-25 This book focuses on the construction of hegemonic masculinity as well as its representations in literature culture and film Although white heterosexual masculinity continues to be the dominant model it remains paradoxically largely invisible in gender terms While the first three chapters thus offer introductory theoretical perspectives on the latest research on white masculinities the following chapters concentrate on applying masculinity theory to the analysis of both social constructions and cultural i e literary and film representations of men s emotions with a special focus on new fatherhood models friendships between men as well as gender based violence

Critical Essays on Chicano Studies Ramón Espejo,2007 This book explores the most recent critical and theoretical approaches in the field of Chicano studies from an interdisciplinary perspective The contributions go back to the 4th International Conference on Chicano Literature which took place in Sevilla in May 2004 They deal with a wide variety of topics and approach the subject from diverse viewpoints Some examine specific literary texts by major Chicano authors from feminist comparative and close reading approaches others discuss ideological and cultural issues like folklore ethnicity identity sexuality or stereotypes while yet others focus on artistic manifestations like films and murals Furthermore the volume also includes an interview with the Chicana writer Ana Castillo The main goal of this collection is to find new cultural possibilities and strategies while exploring future dilemmas in the field of Chicano Studies Routledge International

Handbook of Masculinity Studies Lucas Gottzén,Ulf Mellström,Tamara Shefer,2019-11-20 The Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies provides a contemporary critical and scholarly overview of theorizing and research on masculinities as well as emerging ideas and areas of study that are likely to shape research and understanding of gender and men in the future The forty eight chapters of the handbook take an interdisciplinary approach to a range of topics on men and masculinities related to identity sex sexuality culture aesthetics technology and pressing social issues The handbook s transnational lens acknowledges both the localities and global character of masculinity A clear message in the book is the need for intersectional theorizing in dialogue with feminist queer and sexuality studies in making sense of men and masculinities Written in a clear and direct style the handbook will appeal to students teachers and researchers in the social sciences and humanities as well as professionals practitioners and activists Language, Gender, and Community in Late

Twentieth-Century Fiction M. Hurst,2011-04-11 Drawing on critical frameworks this study establishes the centrality of language gender and community in the quest for identity in contemporary American fiction Close readings of novels by Alice Walker Ernest Gaines Ann Beattie John Updike Chang rae Lee and Rudolfo Anaya among others show how individuals find their American identities Naming the Father Eva Paulino Bueno,Terry Caesar,William Hummel,2000 This is a collection of essays on the subject of fatherhood its enduring power its secret ruses and unsettling provocations Contemporary
