Naming The Silences God Medicine And The Problem Of Suffering:

Naming the Silences: God, Medicine and the Problem of Suffering Stanley Hauerwas,1990 Naming the Silences Stanley Hauerwas,2004-10-07 Hauerwas explores why we so fervently seek explanations for suffering and evil and he shows how modern medicine has become a god to which we look in vain for deliverance from the evils of disease and mortality

Health, Healing and the Church's Mission Willard M. Swartley,2012-07-19 Does the Christian community have the resources to develop a coherent response to today s health care challenges In a comprehensive survey covering the full scope of the Bible and three millennia of Christian belief and practice Willard Swartley fleshes out the central place of health care in the church s mission On Moral Medicine M. Therese Lysaught,Joseph Kotva,Stephen E. Lammers,Allen

Verhey,2012-07-20 In print for more than two decades On Moral Medicine remains the definitive anthology for Christian theological reflection on medical ethics This third edition updates and expands the earlier awardwinning volumes providing classrooms and individuals alike with one of the finest available resources for ethics engaged modern medicine The

Ethics of Grace Paul Martens,Michael Mawson,2022-09-22 This volume draws together leading theologians and Christian ethicists from across the globe to critically engage with and reflect upon Gerald McKenny widely acknowledged as one of the most original and important Christian ethicists working today The essays highlight the significance of McKenny s interventions with a range of important debates in contemporary theological ethics ranging from analyses of the Protestant conception of grace to bioethics and medicine Reaching far beyond the work of Gerald McKenny this multifaceted volume is a high level resource for students and scholars of theological and philosophical ethics Naming the Silences Stanley

Hauerwas,1993 Suffering and God Isaiah Majok Dau,2002 Pain and Suffering in Medieval Theology Donald Mowbray,2009 Examines the works of Paris theologians to show how they dealt with the questions of human pain and suffering Questions of pain and suffering occur frequently in medieval theological debate Here Dr Mowbray examines the innovative views of Paris s masters of theology in the thirteenth century illuminating how they constructed notions of pain and suffering by building a standard terminology and conceptual framework Such issues as the Passion of Christ penitential suffering suffering and gender the fate of unbaptized children and the pain and suffering of souls and resurrected bodies in hell are all considered to demonstrate how the masters established a clear and precise consensus for their explanations of the human condition DONALD MOWBRAY gained his PhD from the University of Bristol God, Medicine, and Suffering Stanley Hauerwas,1994-12-12 Why does a good and all powerful God allow us to experience pain and suffering According to Stanley Hauerwas asking this question is a theological mistake Drawing heavily on stories of ill and dying children to illustrate and clarify his discussion of theological philosophical issues Hauerwas explores why we so fervently seek explanations for suffering and evil and he shows how modern medicine has become a god to which we look in vain for deliverance from the evils of disease and mortality Medicine and the Ethics of Care Diana Fritz Cates,Paul

Lauritzen,2001 Ten US ethicists tap feminist and religious ethics in pursing new paths in bioethics The initial papers discuss the need for truly putting care into managed care In one of several treatments related to the psychology of emotion Cates U of Iowa calls for rethinking informed consent in caring for women girls who are considering abortion The last section views narrative as central to an ethic of care as exemplified by explorations of biblical passages about suffering by those coping with illness a feminist account of caring for the dead in Jewish burial practice and tales re situating medical ethics regarding HIV AIDS patients Lauritzen teaches religious studies and applied ethics at John Carroll U in Ohio Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Healing Stories Glenn Roberts,Jeremy Holmes,1999 At the heart of any therapeutic encounter there is always a story Patients seeking help bring with them stories spoken or untold fragmentary and whole that collectively make up their own personal narrative their lived autobiography Whatever else their tasks a central part of the doctor s or therapist s job is to facilitate the telling of these stories to make meaning out of them and find the patterns within them The aim of this book is to rehabilitate stories and story telling within medicine psychiatry and psychotherapy and to consider a narrative approach both as a theoretical paradigm and a practical therapeutic tool

The Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity Presents Dignity and Dying John Frederic Kilner,Arlene B. Miller,Edmund D. Pellegrino,1996 This book offers a variety of perspectives on significant ethical issues in the field of medicine and health care particularly as they relate to death and dying

Jesus the Warrior? William Michael Slattery,2007 The early followers of Christ desisted from carrying and using weapons that threaten and cause physical violence None of the Church leaders and patristic writers was in favor of participating in armies and militias But by the fourth century CE with Christianity becoming the dominant religion in Eurasia the Christian stance towards war and violence changed from non acceptance to approval Was this a result of a rectification of the misinterpretation of Christ s teachings by his early followers or by the later theologians If that is the case did the early Christians deliberately misinterpret Christ s teachings because of the precarious political position they found themselves in or did they actually see in Christ s teachings an exhortation towards non violence What are the arguments given by the later Christian thinkers in favour of just war These are some of questions tackled by W Michael Slattery in his book Jesus the Warrior

Common Life in the Early Church Julian Victor Hills,1998 This book offers a breadth of focus on community or common life in various Christian eras that is how that life is pictured both in texts and in early Christian art Readers will find opportunity here to become current regarding what has been said and what is being said about how religious communities have defined themselves and how they have been seen by outsiders In addition readers will learn more about the origins of monasticism a claim for a very early date is made about Jewish and Christian relations in the early centuries about house churches and much more

The North Carolina Historical Review ,1993 Religion Index One,1992 Ethical Responsibility in Pharmacy Practice Robert A. Buerki,Louis Donald Vottero,1994 Bioethics

Beyond the Headlines Albert R. Jonsen,2005 Bioethics asks fundamental questions Who lives Who dies Who decides These questions are relevant to us all Too often the general public's sole encounter with these weighty questions is through sound bites fed to us by the media where complex difficult matters are typically presented in superficial and inaccurate terms Here renowned bioethicist Albert R Jonsen equips readers with the tools and background to navigate the fascinating and complex landscape of bioethics Bioethics Beyond the Headlines is a primer You will not find convoluted philosophical arguments in this volume Rather you will find an engaging sampling of the key questions in bioethics including euthanasia assisted reproduction cloning and stem cells neuroscience access to healthcare and even research on animals and questions of environmental ethics areas typically overlooked in general introductions to bioethics But a primer is not merely a first book it should also prime the interest of the reader to prepare the mind for a more expansive venture into these issues Bioethics Beyond the Headlines intends to do just that The Ethics of Educational Leadership Ronald W. Rebore,2001 This book looks at ethics in educational administration from a practical perspective viewing significant ethical issues in building and central office administration and organizes the content to address the requirements of ISLLC Standard Five The presentation begins with a treatment of personal ethical development moves to the practice of educational leadership continues with the issues of pluralism and concludes with an ethical orientation self assessment instrument Writings of major philosophers and important ethical public documents are used as touchstones upon which ethical analysis is developed while case studies offer readers the opportunity to see how theory is put into practice Some of the selected readings include contributions from Jean Paul Sartre Immanuel Kant Aristotle Jurgen Habermas John Stuart Mill Edith Stein Simone de Beauvoir and John Rawls For professionals in human resource administration and other management level positions Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1998
