Purpose and Providence Vernon White,2015-10-22 Do our lives have purpose Despite the rise of secularism we are still confronted by a sense of meaning and direction in the events of history and our own lives something which is beyond us and not our own creation imagination Using the novels of Thomas Hardy and Julian Barnes Vernon White tracks this belief in intellectual history and tests its resilience in modern literature Both novelists portray modern and late modern scenarios where although the idea of an objective purpose has been deconstructed it still haunts the protagonists Using literature as the starting point the discussion moves on to an exploration of this belief in its theological form through the doctrine of providence White critically reviews the classic canon of providence and its pressure points the problems in divine causality the metaphysical assumptions required in its acceptance and the contradictions to be found between God's purpose and the metanarratives of history Using Barth and Frei White suggests new ways of re imagining divine providence to take account of these issues The credibility of this re defined providence is then tested against scripture experience and praxis with the result being an understanding of providence that does not rely on empirical progress

Life Writing Meg Jensen,Jane Jordan,2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Health, Illness and Disease ,2021-10-25 The study of health care brings one into contact with many disciplines and perspectives including those of the provider and the patient There are also multiple academic lenses through which one can view health illness and disease This book brings together scholars from around the world who are interested in developing new conversations intended to situate health in broader social and cultural contexts This book is the outcome of the second global conference on Making Sense of Health Illness and Disease held at St Hilda's College Oxford in July 2003 The selected papers pursue a range of topics and incorporate perspectives from the humanities social sciences and clinical sciences This volume will be of interest to researchers and health care practitioners who wish to gain insight into other ways of understanding health illness and disease The Revelation Worldview Jon K. Newton,2015-02-06 Does Christianity have anything useful or credible to say to the twenty first century or is it just a relic of a past era doomed eventually to die a long and painful death perhaps to be replaced by the new atheism or another religion In an original contribution to such debates The Revelation Worldview is a bold attempt to construct a biblically based Christian worldview that makes sense to postmodern people It also seeks to make the book of Revelation one of the most strange and difficult books in the Bible relevant to issues facing people in the twenty first century Jon K Newton wrestles with the complex notion of worldview tells the story of the changing Western worldview from its ancient and medieval beginnings through the modern era and into the unpredictable world of postmodernism and compares the worldview found in Revelation with other worldviews of its day He then uses Revelation as a source for identifying some basic Christian answers to questions such as What is real How do we know anything How can religious knowledge claims be justified How can we understand the concept of the human person How can we make sense of history And how should we respond to pluralism

Alterity, Pain, and Suffering in Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel Mary E. Mills,2007-06-15 This book explores alterity pain and suffering through readings of selected passages from Isaiah Jeremiah and Ezekiel It uses reading methods drawn from modern literary theory cultural geography social psychology and moral philosophy to read these ancient texts from the viewpoint of twenty first century interests Mills aim is to focus on the absolute reality of pain suffering and difference in human experience and to find the values contained in these experiences thus it produces a Narrative Ethics approach to the Old Testament Mills argues that these selected biblical texts provide evidence of human interrogation of the meaning and value of pain and loss in human experience The ways in which these texts interweave the subjective voice of the prophet with the life experience of the wider society offer the modern reader a resource for exploring contemporary concerns such as embodiment landscape and horror    American Book Publishing Record ,2002    Honest to God Colin Slee,2004 Honest to God 40 Years On follows in the footsteps of the original publication Honest to God by providing a series of discussions about how the reader may wish to address the current issues facing them in today s society    Humanity, the World and God Willem B.
