Narratives And The Making Of History:

Narratives and the Making of History Romila Thapar, 2000 These two essays explore some facets of the interface between narrative and history The first explores the versions of the story of Sakuntala The second juxtaposes the data on the raid of Mahmud of Ghazni on the temple of Somanatha

Narrative and History Alun Munslow, 2018-09-19 Based on the assumption that reality reference and representation work together this introductory textbook explains and illustrates the various ways in which historians write the past as history For the first time the full range of leading narrative theorists such as Paul Ricoeur Hayden White Frank Ankersmit Seymour Chatman and Gerard Genette have been brought together to explain the narrative making choices all author historians make when creating historical explanations Combining theory with practice Alun Munslow expands the boundaries of the discipline and charts a new role for unconventional historical forms and modes of expression Clear but comprehensive this is an ideal resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on history and theory history and method and historiography

Contesting History Jeremy Black, 2014-03-13 Contesting History is an authoritative guide to the positive and negative applications of the past in the public arena and what this signifies for the meaning of history more widely Using a global non Western model Jeremy Black examines the employment of history by the state the media the national collective memory and others and considers its fundamental significance in how we understand the past Moving from public life pre 1400 to the struggle of ideologies in the 20th century and contemporary efforts to find meaning in historical narratives Jeremy Black incorporates a great deal of original material on governmental social and commercial influences on the public use of history This includes a host of in depth case studies from different periods of history around the world and coverage of public history in a wider range of media including TV and film Readers are guided through this material by an expansive introduction section headings chapter conclusions and a selected further reading list Written with eminent clarity and breadth of knowledge Contesting History is a key text for all students of public history and anyone keen to know more about the nature of history as a discipline and concept
