academic book that examines the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on higher education in Africa. The book aims to provide a comprehensive analysis of the sustainability of the new normal approaches in African universities and institutions of learning as well as government responses to teaching and learning processes during and post pandemic. The sudden outbreak of COVID 19 triggered demands for informal, comfortable and self-designed spaces that go beyond conventional formal classrooms where students can take initiative and demonstrate independence in learning. However, access to digitalized teaching methods remains problematic due to the digital divide among learners and the rural/urban dichotomy. The book invites researchers, academics, and scholars in the Global South to contribute to the narrative to document successes in and improve the higher education sector post pandemic. The book covers a range of themes including the sustainability of digitalized teaching approaches, integrative and interactive teaching and learning theories and practices, government responses to teaching and learning processes, comparative analysis of conventional and digitalized teaching and learning approaches, and equality, diversity, and participation in digitalized teaching and learning platforms among others.

Navigating Through the Crisis: Business, Technological and Ethical Considerations Silvia L. Fotea, Joan S. Fotea, Sebastian Văduva, 2022-01-01. This proceedings volume provides a multifaceted perspective on the unprecedented crises generated by the global COVID 19 pandemic and its ramifications for individuals, businesses, organizations, governments, and systems in developing countries. Featuring selected papers from the 2020 Annual Griffiths School of Management and IT Conference GSMAC held in Oradea, Romania, this volume focuses on business, technological, and ethical considerations in the process of navigating through a global crisis. It analyzes the effectiveness of different measures taken at individual, organizational, and country level and outlines potential scenarios and solutions for the new post-crisis reality. Finally, the book provides diagnosis and recommendations for managerial practice in various industries impacted by the crisis.

The Routledge International Handbook of Himalayan Environments, Development and Wellbeing Ben Campbell, Mary Cameron, Tanka Subba, 2025-07-21. Shifting dynamics of peoples' livelihoods and territories influenced by global warming require new ways of thinking and new kinds of politics beyond the sovereignties of idealized traditional European nation states. The Routledge International Handbook of Himalayan Environments, Development and Wellbeing features over 70 scholars from the social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences who explore the interrelationships between environmental change, development, and wellbeing across the entire Himalayan region from the Indian Himalayas in the east to Bhutan, Nepal, Tibet, TAR, India, and Gilgit Baltistan in the west. Within over 50 chapters, the handbook presents engaging field-based research on the region's socio-cultural diversity, climate adaptation, and socio-economic transformation. It examines creative ways Himalayan communities adapt, seek wellbeing, and respond to environmental and development challenges. Lessons about learning from Indigenous and local peoples about governance of forests and water and grassroots conservation practices from the Himalayan region can help inform global networks of researchers and practitioners. The handbook will interest scholars students stakeholders and the public about the evolving relationships between Himalayan peoples territories and global warming offering insights into people s creative ways for understanding adapting and seeking wellbeing in environmental relations and development possibilities The Report: Dubai 2016 Oxford Business Group,2016-10-17
