

Mystical Consciousness

Brent M. Baum

Mystical Consciousness:

Psychology of Mystical Consciousness Carl Albrecht, 2019-05 Carl Albrecht Psychology of Mystical Consciousness is the first English translation of the ground breaking study by the German medical doctor psychotherapist and mystic Carl Albrecht 1902 1965 first published in 1951 as Psychologie des Mystischen Bewusstseins The book reprinted in Germany in 1976 1990 and 2018 has remained untranslated to date and is now made available to international scholarship in an annotated English edition The book offers the results of Albrecht's meticulous long term empirical research into mystical consciousness Albrecht's results are unique in that they derive from a pioneering methodological approach based on Autogenic Training which enabled a practitioner to verbalize spontaneously what he/she is experiencing while immersed in an altered state of consciousness These spontaneous utterances of mystical and non mystical experience were concurrently recorded by Albrecht supplemented by his own utterances recorded by a confidante and provided him with invaluable empirical data for his detailed phenomenological analyses The outcome was a most comprehensive systematic psychological phenomenology of mystical consciousness informed by long term empirical research which is unique as regards authenticity immediacy and scope Unlike other empirical studies in this field which are either based on records of mystical experience retrieved retrospectively or derived from behaviorist research or both Albrecht's empirical data originate from immediate not rationally mediated verbal testimonies spoken by subjects while transported into a mystical state in addition to records of great mystics from Eastern and Western mystical traditions Psychology of Mystical Consciousness is now accessible to English speaking scholars and scientists world wide and will surely provide a new impetus to interdisciplinary enquiries into mysticism and the spiritual nature of man Awakening Mystical Consciousness Joel S. Goldsmith, 1980 Mystical Consciousness Louis Roy, O.P., 2012-02-01 This book offers a philosophical account of ordinary consciousness as a step toward understanding mystical consciousness Presupposing a living interaction between meditation and thinking the work draws on Western and Japanese thinkers to develop a philosophy of religion that is friendly to the experience of meditators and that can explore such themes as emptiness nothingness and the self Western thinkers considered include Plotinus Eckhart Schleiermacher Heidegger Brentano Husserl Sartre and Lonergan and Japanese thinkers referenced include Nishitani Hisamatsu and Suzuki All employed centering prayer Zen or other forms of mental concentration Particular emphasis is placed on the work of twentieth century Catholic philosopher Bernard Lonergan whose writings on consciousness can inform an understanding of mysticism Mystical Consciousness Bob Benefield, 2008-12 Awareness is key to spiritual enlightenment This book offers a framework for examining consciousness research and for looking into personal consciousness Metaphysical and mystical states are operationally defined and correlates of those states are examined Critical thinking skills are applied in a self management strategy called cognitive behavior analysis The Analysis Zone AZ is illustrated as the prototype of critical thinking Creative thinking skills are explained as activities of the Neutral Zone NZ The

NZ includes the initial phases of brainstorming flow experiences in music art sports mediation meditation and mystical consciousness Metaphysical and mystical correlates of kingdom consciousness are developed Awareness of the metaphysical constraints of ego or self metaphysical awareness permits its distinction from mystical ego free consciousness The book begins with a summary of the findings of the Spiritual Discernment Project and concludes with Kingdom consciousness ideas as expressed in the Christian public domain About the Author Robert Bob Benefield is in his 38th year of college teaching He is currently Professor of Psychology and Criminal Justice at East Texas Baptist University in Marshall Texas He is also Professor Emeritus at LSU Shreveport He has been involved as a researcher and consultant facilitator in conflict resolution anger management and creative problem solving for schools law enforcement and community agencies He received the PhD from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale the MA from New Mexico State University and the BA from Louisiana Tech University He is currently a researcher in spiritual discernment as well as consultant and workshop facilitator promoting changes in consciousness for positive behavior change

Beyond Belief Peter Spink, 1996 Living as Light Brent M. Baum, 2006 Heightened Consciousness David Granfield, 1991 Contemplation Helen Brungardt, 1975 The Innate Capacity Robert K. C. Forman, 1998 This book is the sequel to Robert Forman's well received collection The Problem of Pure Consciousness Oxford 1990 The essays in the earlier volume argued that some mystical experiences do not seem to be formed or shaped by the language system a thesis that stands in sharp contradistinction to deconstruction in general and to the constructivist school of mysticism in particular which holds that all mysticism is the product of a cultural and linguistic process In The Innate Capacity Forman and his colleagues put forward a hypothesis about the formative causes of these pure consciousness experiences All of the contributors agree that mysticism is the result of an innate human capacity rather than a learned socially conditioned and constructive process The innate capacity is understood in several different ways Many perceive it as an expression of human consciousness per se awareness itself Some hold that consciousness should be understood as a built in link to some hidden transcendent aspect of the world and that a mystical experience is the experience of that inherent connectedness Another thesis that appears frequently is that mystics realize this innate capacity through a process of releasing the hold of the ego and the conceptual system The contributors here look at mystical experience as it is manifested in a variety of religious and cultural settings including Hindu Yoga Buddhism Sufism and medieval Christianity Taken together the essays constitute an important contribution to the ongoing debate about the nature of human consciousness and mystical experience and its relation to the social and cultural contexts in which it appears

Visionary Human Nevill Drury, 2002-06-01 Mysticism, Mind, Consciousness Robert K. C. Forman, 1999-06-03 In an exploration of mystical texts from ancient India and China to medieval Europe and modern day America Robert K C Forman one of the leading voices in the study of mystical experiences argues that the various levels of mysticism may not be shaped by culture language and background knowledge but rather are a direct encounter with our very conscious core itself

Mysticism Mind Consciousness focuses on first hand accounts of two distinct types of mystical experiences Through examination of texts recorded interviews and courageous autobiographical experiences the author describes not only the well known pure consciousness event but also a new hitherto uncharted dualistic mystical state He provides a thorough and readable depiction of just what mysticism feels like These accounts and the experiences to which they give voice arise from the heart of living practices and have substance and detail far beyond virtually any others in the literature The book also reexamines the philosophical issues that swirl around mysticism In addition to examining modern day constructivist views Forman argues that the doctrines of Kant Husserl and Brentano cannot be applied to mysticism Instead he offers new philosophical insights based on the work of Chinese philosopher of mind Paramartha The book concludes with an examination of mind and consciousness which shows that mysticism has a great deal to tell us about human experience and the nature of human knowledge far beyond mysticism itself

Bede Griffith's Experience and Understanding of Mystical Consciousness Antu Alappadan,2006

The Visionary Human Nevill Drury,1991 Exploration of the challenges presented by paranormal evidence and visionary consciousness Contains an interview with Robert Monroe a pioneer of research into out of the body consciousness Other books by the author include TThe Elements of Shamanism and TThe Elements of Human Potential Includes a bibliography and an index

The Problem of Pure Consciousness Robert K. C. Forman,1990-03-29 Are mystical experiences primarily formed by the mystic s cultural background and concepts as modern day constructivists maintain or do mystics in some way transcend language belief and culturally conditioned expectations Do mystical experiences differ in the different religious traditions as pluralists contend or are they identical across cultures Twelve contributors here attempt to answer these questions through close examination of a particular form of mystical experience Pure Consciousness the experience of being awake but devoid of intentional content for consciousness The contributors analyze pure consciousness and other mystical experiences from historical Hindu Buddhist Christian and Jewish sources as well as from modern mystics They demonstrate that pure consciousness poses serious conceptual problems for a constructivist understanding of mysticism Revealing the inconsistencies and inadequacies of current models they make significant strides towards developing new models for the phenomenon of mysticism breaking new ground for our understanding of mysticism and of human experience in general

Contemplation and Freedom Benedict R. Shoup,Mary Frohlich,2025-04-22 How does prayer shape action How does sustained engagement in deep prayer shape our very freedom to act This volume explores the relationship between Christian contemplative prayer and the exercise of freedom Over the past half century the desire for a better integration of spirituality and theology has emerged as a significant theme in theological writing While the question of freedom has not been absent from this discourse this volume highlights it by bringing it to the very center of the conversation Eleven theologians explore the dialectical relationship between contemplation and freedom by engaging with a wide array of sources ranging from Maximus the Confessor to Edith Stein from Howard Thurman to Bernard Lonergan from the Tibhirine martyrs to M Shawn Copeland This symphony of voices unveils the methodological fruitfulness of placing contemplative prayer at the center of life theory and practice Mystical Consciousness and the Mystical Self in John of the Cross and Teresa of Avila Edward Howells,1999 Unity of the Heart Peter N. Borys,Peter N. Borys, Jr.,2008-12 In Unity of the Heart Peter Borys Jr presents a multidimensional mystical anthropology and transformation that forms a spirituality of the heart A heart centered consciousness opens the way to living a new vision of mystical transformation and spiritual creativity Borys develops this new vision where we live from a transcendent consciousness in our everyday life of relationships intention creativity and work in the world The book supports our pathway to experience the meditative awareness relational self giving and intention of the heart based consciousness Within the heart we can seamlessly express our nonlocal and nondual mystic self as a community of being within the universe The awakening of a consciousness of the heart unites the sciences and the mystic way to form a spiritual scientific view of our multidimensional humanity and spiritual cosmology Within the new vision personal transformation to the true self in Divine unity becomes part of the evolution to an enlightened humanity Mysticism in Bhagavat Gita Mahendranath Sircar,1929 The Dialectic of the Mystical Consciousness John Phillip Chiara,1971 The Mystical Poets of the English Church Percy Herbert Osmond,1919
