BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience Paul Mommaers,2003 A distinctive feature of mystical experience is that it is imageless Mystics of various traditions witness indeed to their going beyond all intermediaries so as to enjoy immediate union Understandably the idea of imageless immediacy is attractive and it is especially in vogue with those who hope to discover that different religious spiritualities converge if only the particularity of say the Christian way would be left behind However a crucial question arises here If mystical union consists in simply transcending what is part and parcel of the human condition where is its relevance Is the mystic as such in a position to be his or her human self thinking and loving enjoying and suffering Can he or she be active in the world of humankind Obviously it is especially in the Christian tradition that this matter comes to the fore as a radical difficulty For here there is the divine Image and Mediator so much so that the Humanity of Jesus ought to be integral to a person s union with God Perhaps the Christian mystic is such an extraordinary figure that the Humanity and all other images and intermediaries are for him or her at best a stepping stone that is bound to disappear The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience aims to clarify this issue by analyzing the writings of such visionaries as Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila and Maria Petyt of the ecstasy minded masters Richard of Saint Victor Bernard of Clairvaux and Bonaventure describing Francis of Assisi s experience of the cream of the Flemish mystics namely Hadewijch and Jan van Ruusbroec Nevertheless the preference for the mystical text does not prevent the Riddle from drawing on the insights of modern philosophers such as Jean Paul Sartre and Jean Luc Marion when treating of images and idols or Michael Polanyi and Ludwig Wittgenstein when reflecting on intermediaries The main result of this procedure may come as a surprise Far from turning into a detached creature who forgets about the Humanity and the human the full fledged mystic is as a Flemish mystic puts it wholly in God where he rests in enjoyment and wholly in himself where he loves with works Experiencing union with intermediary and without intermediary the true Christian mystic is unimagined as well as imaged upon the humanity of our Lord through heartfelt affection Beyond Mysticism James Horne,1978-08-31 This study of the meaning and the experience of mysticism is a product of the author s personal interest in mysticism and his reflection as a philosopher on some of the philosophical questions raised by mysticism is a a psychological process which occurs with varying degrees of intensity in everyone s life and the observation that this process changes the experiencer the author goes on to discuss such questions as Can we define mysticism and Can we describe mystical experiences Is mysticism rational and What is the meaning of mystical experience The Mystic Experience Jordan Paper,2012-02-01 The mystic zero or void experience the ecstatic disappearance of self along with everything else is considered by those who have had it to be the most beautiful blissful positive profound and significant experience of their lives Offering both a descriptive and a comparative perspective this book explores the mystic experience across cultures as both a human and cultural event The book begins and ends with descriptions of the author s own mystical experiences and looks at self reported experiences by individuals who do not link their experiences to a religious tradition to determine characteristics of this universal human experience These characteristics are compared to statements of acknowledged mystics in diverse religious traditions The mystic experience is also situated within other ecstatic religious experiences to distinguish it from similar but distinct experiences such as lucid dreams shamanism and mediumism Jordan Paper goes on to look at how the mystic experience has been considered in various fields such as sociology psychology anthropology biology and comparative religious studies
