Above the Falls John Harris, 2011-02-01 In May 1936 George Dalziel flew far up the Nahanni River to check on Bill Eppler and Joe Mulholland who were working one of his traplines He found their cabin burned to the ground and no sign of them anywhere What had happened to the healthy young men Had there been an accident or was a killer on the loose Dalziel known as The Flying Trapper had a successful trapping operation along the Flat South Nahanni and Liard rivers Using his small airplane to locate areas rich in marten and beaver he would leave his men in this wild country and drop in from time to time to check on them and fly out the pelts The authorities wanted to shut Dal down So when he saw the burned down cabin he knew he was in trouble In Above the Falls a suspenseful fact based novel John Harris uses RCMP reports and the testimony of local trappers to paint a vivid picture of a gripping winter chase an unsolved mystery and a now vanished lifestyle in the great northern wilderness

Voices from the Mackenzies Paul Deuling, 2017-12-14 Re live the experiences of the people who traveled to the distant and untouched Mackenzie Mountains of Canada's Northwest Territories This raw beautiful land was opened to outfitting in 1965 when intrepid entrepreneurs carried out exploratory hunts by horse and backpack to determine whether the Mackenzies were worth an outfitting investment Five men initially set out to build their businesses in this remote country making a living through a lot of hard work and a little bit of luck Guides cooks and wranglers contributed to their success in the hunt for Dall sheep grizzly bears mountain caribou mountain goats and moose Their stories are filled with tales of animal encounters tragedy and humour Today eight outfitters operate in the Mackenzie Mountains as the area remains as remote and beautiful as when the original five outfitters trekked into the area in the 1960 s I hope you enjoy reading Voices From the Mackenzies as much as I enjoyed writing about the folks who made their living in this beautiful country

Let Them be Remembered Elizabeth Browne Losey,1999 It might be said that Canada was founded because of a fad of fashion the insatiable demand for beaver hats that swept through Europe in the late 17th century When it was discovered that the beaver existed in abundance in North America the fur trade was born As trappers in their relentless pursuit of beaver probed every stream and lake moving ever deeper into the wilderness they pushed back the boundaries and opened the way for the settlers who followed them Let Them Be Remembered by Elizabeth Browne Losey is the story of the fur trade and the fur trade forts Over the course of twenty years the author and her husband long interested in the fur trade not only sought information from a wealth of sources such as fort journals and traders diaries and letters but also searched for and traveled to the sites of the forts themselves uwwebpro uwinnipeg ca academic ic rupert OrderForms html
