Nahuatl Theater Volume 1 Death Life In Col:

The Conquest All Over Again Susan Schroeder, 2011-03-23 The Spaniards typically portrayed the conquest and fall of Mexico Tenochtitlan as Armageddon while native people in colonial Mesoamerica continued to write and paint their histories and lives often without any mention of the foreigners in their midst This title addresses key aspects of indigenous perspectives of the conquest     Power and Identity in Archaeological Theory and Practice Eleanor Harrison-Buck, 2012-04-15 A new and broader approach to understanding power and identity in the Mesoamerican archaeological record     Engaging Coloniality Raimundo Barreto, Mark A. Lamport, 2025-08-19 The fifteen chapters of Engaging Coloniality tell a complex and multifaceted story of Latin American Christianity Latin America was the first region of the colonized world to be Christianized As no form of Christianity preexisted the colonial invasion of Latin America no Latin American Christian story can be told without reference to colonialism Throughout its five hundred year history in Latin America Christianity has taken multiple forms This history is presented as in no other volume available in English Primarily non Eurocentric perspectives alternate between continuity and transformations Rather than emphasizing denominational branches this volume focuses on liberative decolonial and intercultural movements This book is cutting edge scholarship on Latin American religion and theology and the featured contributors represent the extent of a continent where almost six hundred million Christians live today Latin American Christian identity has never been homogeneous and the volume describes countless Christian spiritualities and practices resulting from continuous encounters tensions and negotiations over five centuries These encounters have not taken place in a historical vacuum but as part of a broader history in which visible and invisible power disparities still inform the limits challenges and promises of the Christian experiment in the region
