Naked Nagas:

The Naked Nagas Christoph von Fürer-Haimendorf,1978 The Naked Nagas Christoph von Fürer-Haimendorf,1933

The Naga Ethnic Movement for a Separate Homeland Namrata Goswami,2020-01-17 Namrata Goswami's research on the Naga armed ethnic movement offers a compelling narrative on how conflict has affected the daily lives of the Nagas. This volume is an account of the Naga ethnic movement going on in India since 1918 covering both historical and contemporary aspects of the conflict. Based on over a decade of ethnographic work among the Naga rebels and movement zones, personal interviews and secondary data, the author offers insights into how the Naga population perceives their meeting point with the institutions of the Indian state, especially the army and the paramilitary. The book documents what it is like to live in a conflict zone and the restraints and thought processes that it cultivates, especially among the youth. The book reveals gripping stories of tremendous courage and conviction from people who have thought about the political unrest, been born into it, taken part in it, or have been affected by it. The Naga Ethnic Movement for a Separate Homeland reflects the Nagas' love for their land, tracing the poignant mix of nature, land, identity, emotions, culture, as well as the inter-ethnic differences that exacerbate the conflict.

The Angami Nagas John Henry Hutton,1921 The Naked Nagas. [With] ... Plates and a Map Christoph von Fuerer-Haimendorf,1939 The Nagas Angeline Lotsüro,2000 This member of the Missionary Sisters of Mary Help of Christians presents Naga Christianity in order to uncover a genuine renewed and deeper faith for the Naga Christian society of the third millennium.

Geographies of Difference Mélanie Vandenhelesken, Meenaxi Barkataki-Ruscheweyh, Bengt G. Karlsson,2017-08-07 This book rethinks Northeast India as a lived space, a centre of interconnections and unfolding histories instead of an isolated periphery. Questioning dominant tropes and assumptions around the Northeast, it examines socio-political and historical processes, border issues, the role of the state, displacement and development, debates over natural resources, violence, notions of body and belonging, movements, tensions and relations, and strategies, struggles and narratives that frame discussions on the region. Drawing on current and emerging research in Northeast India studies, this work will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of politics, human geography, sociology and social anthropology, history, cultural studies, media studies and South Asian studies.

Great Game East Bertil Lintner,2015-01-01 Since the 1950s, China and India have been locked in a monumental battle for geopolitical supremacy. Chinese interest in the ethnic insurgencies in northeastern India, the still unresolved issue of the McMahon Line, the border established by the British imperial government, and competition for strategic access to the Indian Ocean have given rise to tense gamesmanship, political intrigue and rivalry between the two Asian giants. Former Far Eastern Economic Review correspondent Bertil Lintner has drawn from his extensive personal interviews with insurgency leaders and civilians in remote tribal areas in northeastern India, newly declassified intelligence reports and his many years of firsthand experience in Asia to chronicle this ongoing struggle. His history of the Great Game East is the first significant account of a regional conflict which has led to open warfare on several occasions most notably the Sino India border war of 1962 and will have a major impact on global affairs in the decades ahead

Manipur, Past and Present: Nagas & Kuki-Chins Naorem Sanajaoba, 1988 Forgotten Voices of the British Empire Carol Ann Boshier, 2022-02-16 This study investigates the contribution made by outsiders in accumulating knowledge from the days of the East India Company until the early twentieth century when photography became an important tool for recording information It focuses on heterogeneous voices on the periphery who interacted with the indigenous population to produce knowledge in original or unexpected ways that extended beyond the limits prescribed by the term colonial Largely unrecognized today their endeavors to satisfy their own intellectual curiosity or improve their material circumstances produced a perspective on colonial life that stripped away conventions where their ordinary everyday experiences sometimes became extraordinary as they forged new networks throughout the subcontinent and beyond its frontiers Their journeys and experiences offer a discursive historical construct as significant as official reports censuses and surveys and contribute towards our understanding of the diverse creative processes through which intellectual histories of the colonial state were constructed

The Ao Nagas James Philip Mills, 1926 Return to the Naked Nagas Christoph von Fürer-Haimendorf, 1976 Routes in Asia: Pt. 1. Routes in Nepal. Pt. 2. Routes in Bhutan. Pt. 3. Routes in Sikkim. The Naked Nagas Christoph von Furer-Haimendorf, 1974 Assam District Gazetteers: Naga Hills and Manipur Basil Copleston Allen, 1905 Locality, History, Memory Rita Mukherjee, M. N. Rajesh, 2009-01-14 Locality History Memory The Making of the Citizen in South Asia was born out of the need to interrogate the tropes through which place history and memory underpin notions of citizenship in present South Asia. Time as both time present and time past is framed here in two settings as privileging both place material or ideological site and space. The latter refers to religion oppression marginalization and or dalitisation. Time transcends both site location and actual physical boundaries. Locality or location is therefore envisioned in terms of both actual place as well as a gateway to a larger space in terms of a situation where historical memory negotiates the increasingly complex present. Agency and contingency therefore assume a critical importance here. Citizenship far from being a discrete entity is found to be multidimensional. It refers to formal status and the legal status of nationality and citizenship authenticated in the passport but it also refers to rights and privileges identity and solidarity religious beliefs and a sense of belonging. Moving away from the role of the state which has been at the centre of all inquiries on citizenship we ask here the following questions in Locality History Memory. How does our history enforce or dilute the notion of the citizen? How far does memory strengthen or weaken it? What role do features not normally associated with citizenship such as access to natural resources or ritual faith and religion play in reinforcing such a status? History in the end is written by the historian and it was easy to map the changing methodologies used by the historians to essay the past but this is becoming increasingly difficult now. Another twist is the shift to hypertext at a popular level echoing what the late E H Carr had once called bringing more and more people into history. These so called alternative histories or people's histories are becoming more and more popular because of the point at which we are located in time. Moreover devices afforded by the new media enable these alternative histories to have an immediacy that the conventional historical format lacked. The collapse of state control over the new media has led to the resurgence of many archaic voices unimaginable just a decade ago. Indian Problems Siddha Mohana Mitra, 1908 The Historical Record of the Imperial Visit to India, 1911, 1914
