Feminism and Contemporary Art Jo Anna Isaak, 2002-09-11 Looks at the work of a diverse range of artists and explores the effect of feminist theory on art practice The book provides a provocative and valuable account of the diversity and revolutionary potential of women's art practice Artists Respond Melissa Ho, Thomas Crow, Erica Levin, Mignon Nixon, Martha Rosler, Smithsonian American Art Museum, 2019-04-02 Published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name on view at the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC March 15 2019 to August 18 2019 Covered in Time and History Howard Oransky, Laura Wertheim Joseph, 2015-09-15 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition Covered in Time and History The Films of Ana Mendieta organized by Lynn Lukkas and Howard Oransky for the Katherine E Nash Gallery at the University of Minnesota The Art of the Sister Chapel Andrew Hottle, 2017-07-05 The Sister Chapel 1974-78 was an important collaborative installation that materialized at the height of the women's art movement Conceived as a nonhierarchical secular commemoration of female role models The Sister Chapel consisted of an eighteen foot abstract ceiling that hung above a circular arrangement of eleven monumental canvases each depicting the standing figure of a heroic woman The choice of subject was left entirely to the creator of each work As a result the paintings formed a visually cohesive group without compromising the individuality of the artists Contemporary and historical women deities and conceptual figures were portrayed by distinguished New York painters Alice Neel May Stevens and Sylvia Sleigh as well as their accomplished but less prominent colleagues Among the role models depicted were Artemisia Gentileschi Frida Kahlo Betty Friedan Joan of Arc and a female incarnation of God Although last exhibited in 1980 The Sister Chapel has lingered in the minds of art historians who continue to note its significance as an exemplar of feminist collaboration Based on previously unpublished archival materials and featuring dozens of rarely seen works of art this comprehensive study details the fascinating history of The Sister Chapel its constituent paintings and its ambitious creators Border Crossings, 2004 Parkett Series with Contemporary Artists, 2001 The End of the World Lynn Gumpert, New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.), 1983 The New York Times Guide to the Arts of the 20th Century: 1900-1929, 2002 Reviews news articles interviews and essays capturing 100 years of art architecture literature music dance theater film and television Arts Digest, 1988 Arts Magazine, 1988 Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization Jonathan Harris, 2025-11-26 Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization presents an authoritative introductory guide to the emergence development and meanings of contemporary art around the world from the era of twentieth century western colonialism to the crises and conflicts of globalization over the last three decades Examining contemporary art's connections to and breaks from modern art in the last century the study offers an innovative account of its artists' formation during the era of decolonization after 1945 and the Cold War Through a series of complementary analytic perspectives the book considers the cultural politics of the global art world its patterns of inclusion and exclusion and charts contemporary art's relations to feminist anti racist and climate change activisms among others as these have both mutated and interconnected since the 1990s More than 50 illustrations are included and are the basis for the book s empirical and theoretically informed study The book is designed for both students and general readers and will be of great value for all who see contemporary art and global cultures as a contested ground of creativity and social significance within which transformative progressive change may be achieved for the whole world and all its peoples
