A Sense of Place Steven Kolpan,2013-02-01 In A Sense of Place renowned wine expert and writer Steven Kolpan tells the story of how Francis Ford Coppola brought California s most distinguished and historic vineyard back to life Gustave Niebaum s Inglenook Estate started in 1879 was one of the Napa Valley's first established vineyards and the birthplace of its premium wine industry. Generations after Niebaum's death the vineyard was sold to Heublein the wine and spirits monolith who broke up the land and changed the Inglenook brand from a premium connoisseur wine to a mass market jug wine. In 1975 Francis Coppola bought the Niebaum residence and the surrounding estate. Along with the original estate's reputation he also brought back some of its original workers including Rafael Rodriguez who in his late seventies now serves as the vineyard manager and historian. Coppola overcame naysayers, red tape and financial turmoil to reestablish the winery as a defender of quality producing wine under four different labels including the revered wine Rubicon. In 1995 Coppola purchased the Inglenook Chateau and its adjacent vineyards fulfilling his dream of reuniting the original Napa Valley estate. Kolpan's luscious flavorful narrative is worth enjoying now and keeping for later.

Napa Wine Charles L. Sullivan, 2008-10-01 Charles Sullivan's Napa Wine: A History is the engaging story of the rise to prominence of what many believe to be the greatest winegrowing area in the Western hemisphere. This new edition completes that picture bringing to light more than a decade of dramatic changes and shifted norms visited upon the valley from phylloxera-wasted vineyards to High Court officiated territorial battles told in a rousing transportive narrative. Beginning in 1817 with the movement of Spanish missions into the San Francisco Bay area Sullivan winds his way through the great wine boom of the late 19th century, the crippling effect of Prohibition and Napa's rise out of its havoc to its eventual rivaling of Bordeaux in the judgments of 1976 and 2006. Published in cooperation with the Napa Valley Wine Library the book includes historic maps, charts of vineyard ownership and vintages from the 1880s to present.

The Winemaker's Dance Jonathan Swinchatt, David G. Howell, 2004-09-14 A pair of geologists tell the geological and environmental history of Napa Valley with an emphasis on terroir or how geology, soils, topography and microclimate influence the kinds and quality of wines produced in different parts of this world-class internationally known wine region.

A Vineyard in Napa Doug Shafer, 2012-11-12 At the age of 47 when he a successful publishing executive and living with his wife and four children in an affluent Chicago suburb John Shafer made the surprise announcement that he had purchased a vineyard in the Napa Valley. In 1973 he moved his family to California and with no knowledge of winemaking began the journey that would lead him thirty years later to own and operate what distinguished wine critic Robert M. Parker Jr. called one of the world's greatest wineries. This book narrated by Shafer's son Doug is a personal account of how his father turned his midlife dream into a remarkable success story. Set against the backdrop of Napa Valley's transformation from a rural backwater in the 1970s through its emergence today as one of the top wine regions in the world the book begins with the winery's shaky start and takes the reader through the father and son's ongoing battles against killer bugs, cellar disasters, local politics, changing consumer tastes and the volatility of nature itself. Doug Shafer tells the story of his own education as well as Shafer Vineyards' innovative efforts to be environmentally sustainable, its role in spearheading the designation of a Stags Leap American Viticultural Area and how the wine industry has changed in the contemporary era of custom crushing.
