The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration, queerness, and climate change, this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Ageing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies. In the early 21st century, the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age; it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world. Following a tripartite structure, it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing, incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry, drama, and imagery. The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Ageing Studies, with examples from film and literature. The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists, national traditions, and global ageing. Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe, it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives.

ReFocus: The Films of Kim Ki-young Chung-kang Kim, 2023-03-22 World renowned South Korean directors including Park Chan-wook and Bong Joon-ho cite Kim Ki-young as being the greatest Korean influence on their work. During his thirty year career, Kim Ki-young produced thirty three films and became revered by critics within the national and international community as one of the few South Korean auteurs. As the first comprehensive scholarly volume on Kim Ki-young in English, ReFocus: The Films of Kim Ki-young covers his entire career and history of cinematic work, highlighting the thematic and stylistic singularity of Kim's oeuvre, which was produced relative to the specific historical and cultural conditions of post-war South Korea. It offers an innovative departure point from which to explore South Korean film relative to the wider history of world cinema, in addition to situating Kim's work within the broader fields of Korean modern history, transnational cinema, and cultural studies.

Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga, Anime and Japanese Cinema Zília Papp, 2010-10-29 Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga, Anime and Japanese Cinema builds on the earlier volume Anime and its Roots in Early Japanese Monster Art that aimed to position contemporary Japanese animation within a wider art historical context by tracing the development of monster representations in Edo and Meiji period art works and post-war visual media. While the previous volume concentrated on modern media representations, this work focuses on how Western art historical concepts and methodology might be adapted.

when considering non Western works introducing traditional monster art in more detail while also maintaining its links to post war animation sequential art and Japanese cinema The book aims at a general readership interested in Japanese art and media as well as graduate students who might be searching for a research model within the fields of Animation Studies

Media Studies or Visual Communication Design Monstrous Reflection Petra Rehling, Elsa Bouet, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 By engaging and questioning existing definitions and ideas all of the essays in this volume represent the idea of a monstrous reflection in one way or another Monsters can serve as a means to explore the cultural anxieties they embody and the reasons for these anxieties Thus monsters act as mirrors highlighting the causes for the creation of categories A reflection can also be a comment or statement applicable in that the monstrous or the word monster becomes a label of otherness and exclusion This label is sometimes a construction a discursive and rhetorical trope which only serves to other those deemed different or undesirable suggesting that the monster might not always be monstrous This volume is about the ones gazing into the mirror and the things staring back at humanity along with the uncomfortable truths that are revealed in the process
