Narrow Gate Churches The Christian Presence In Th:

Narrow Gate Churches Atallah Mansour, 2004 Photographs have a crucial place in the representation of the atomic age and its anxieties Camera Atomica examines narratives beyond the technological sublime that dominates much nuclear photography suppressing representations of the human form in favor of representations of B 52 bombers and mushroom clouds The book proposes that the body is the site where the social environment interacts with the so called atomic road uranium mining and processing radiation research nuclear reactor construction and operation and weapons testing Cameras have both recorded and in certain instances provided motivation for the production of nuclear events Their histories and technological development are intimately intertwined at McGill University in the early 1900s for example Ernest Rutherford employed photography to identify the properties of radioactive materials winning a Nobel Prize for his research and at Los Alamos in the mid 1940s Julian E Mack and Berlyn Brixner designed specialized cameras for measuring the blast yield of nuclear weapons All photographs including nuclear photographs have the capability to function affectively by working on the emotions and fascinating audiences Through a wide range of visual documentation Camera Atomica raises questions such as what has the role of photography been in underwriting a public image of the bomb and nuclear energy Has the circulation of photographic images heightened or lessened anxieties or done both at the same time How should the different visual protocols of photography scientific journalistic documentary touristic and artistic be understood Zion's Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence, 1930 Palestine's Christians and the Nationalist Cause Erik Freas, 2024-12-23 This book provides an historical overview of Palestine s Christian communities and their role in the Palestinian nationalist movement during the late Ottoman and British mandatory periods More than being a history of Palestine s Christian Arabs the book focuses on Palestine s Christians during the formative period of Palestinian Arab national identity attentive to the broader topic of the relationship between nationalism and religion in this case between Arab identity and Islam Whereas until recently historians have tended to assume that national and religious identities are distinct and mostly mutually exclusive things more recent scholarship has addressed the fact that often there exists considerable overlap between the two though it should be noted often in ways that are not by any means inherently exclusive of those not belonging to the majority faith as is the case here The relationship is also an ever changing one hence the final chapter of the book which functions as something of an epilogue regarding the current status of Palestine s Christians vis vis their place in the nationalist cause and relationship with the broader Muslim population The book will be of interest to historians and scholars focused on the modern Middle East Palestinian history Muslim Christian inter communal relations and the relationship between nationalism and religion Arab Evangelicals in Israel Azar Aja, Duane Alexander Miller, Philip Sumpter, 2016-07-11 The essays contained in this book provide an introduction to the history challenges and hopes of contemporary evangelical Arab Christians in Israel and to a lesser degree in the West Bank After opening with a general overview of Arab Christianity in the Holy Land the following chapters treat different aspects of the evangelical Arab experience the founding of the Convention of Evangelical Churches in Israel CECI as well as a theological seminary for the training of church workers Nazareth Evangelical Theological Seminary NETS the self understanding of Arab Baptists in terms of their identity and relation to other groups in Israel an Arab perspective on the relationship between Arab evangelicals and Messianic Jews as well as the struggles hopes and fears of another evangelical community that is usually hidden from view namely that of Muslim converts to Christianity in Israel the West Bank and the Middle East in general The final chapter offers a detailed bibliography on Arabophone Christianity in Israel and Palestine

Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2009-12-16 This book addresses the major generators of conflict and toleration at shared holy places in Palestine and Israel Examining the religious political and legal issues the authors show how the holy sites have been a focus of both conflict and cooperation between different communities Bringing together the views of a diverse group of experts on the region Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict provides a new and multifaceted approach to holy places giving an in depth analysis of relevant issues Themes covered include legal regulation of holy places nationalization and reproduction of holy space sharing and contesting holy places identity politics and popular legends of holy sites Chapters cover in detail how recognition and authorization of a new site come about the influence of religious belief versus political ideology on the designation of holy places the centrality of such areas to the surrounding political developments and how historical background and culture affect the perception of a holy site and relations between conflicting groups This new approach to the study of holy places and the Israeli Palestinian conflict has great significance for a variety of disciplines and will be of great interest in the fields of law politics religious studies anthropology and sociology

Radical Christianity in Palestine and Israel Samuel J. Kuruvilla, 2013-03-27 Christianity arose from the lands of biblical Palestine and regardless of its twentieth century associations with the Arab Israeli conflict to Christians around the world it remains first and foremost the birthplace of Christianity Nevertheless the size of the Christian population among Palestinians today living in Israel and the Palestinian territories is now relatively insignificant In Radical Christianity in the Middle East Samuel J Kuruvilla argues that Christian Palestinians often employ politically astute as well as theologically radical means in their efforts to prove relevant as a minority community within Israeli and Palestinian societies Examining the political background of the gradual collapse of secular Arab Nationalism to be replaced by Islamic liberation movements he reveals a trend within the Christian Palestinian Church which saw increasing politicisation in the 1980s and 1990s In the face of often restrictive Israeli policies such as land confiscation along with the First Intifada there was a drive towards setting up inter Church and faith activism with the goal of Palestinian liberation Kuruvilla charts the development of a theology of Christian liberation in particular through the work of Palestinian Anglican cleric Naim Stifan Ateek and Palestinian Lutheran Pastor Mitri Raheb From its roots in 1960s Latin America liberation theology has been adapted and contextualised within the specific situation within

Israel and Palestine to produce a framework that emphasises peace and reconciliation while recognising the importance of resistance and national unity Theology has impacted Christian perceptions of Palestinians struggle with Israel the idea of a land promised to the sons of Abraham and the moral responsibilities that come with this are pitted against Israeli oppression of both Christian and Muslim inhabitants of the Holy Land and their desire for independence and justice Through this comprehensive study of the often overlooked theological political and practical position of Christians in Palestine Kuruvilla provides a new and insightful perspective on one of the most written about conflicts Churches and Monasteries in the Holy Land David Rapp, 2014-11-17 The defining events of early Christianity are memorialized in churches and monasteries throughout the Holy Land many of which date back to ancient times This beautiful book is a wonderful written and visual guide to those religious monuments and the artistic treasures that lie within their walls The author David Rapp is an art historian and critic who opens a window into the fascinating geographical theological sphere where Christianity was conceived and born Each chapter features spectacular pictures by Hanan Isachar an acclaimed photographer Christianity's roots extend deep into the earth of the Holy Land This book is dedicated to those who wish to learn more about that heritage and the religious sites that stand as testimonies to it Christian Intelligencer, 1933 Religion Index One, 1995

Conflict in the Holy Land Robert C. DiPrizio, 2020-02-07 With more than 250 cross referenced entries covering every aspect of conflict in the Holy Land this illuminating book will help students understand the volatile history of Palestine and Israel and its impact on the rest of the world Palestine is considered a sacred land by Christians Jews and Muslims This has contributed to the violence that has ravaged the Holy Land throughout its long history This A Z reference work which defines the Holy Land as historic Palestine the combined territories of Israel the West Bank and the Gaza Strip covers such ancient conflicts as Egypt's rule over Canaan the reign of King David and the Jewish Revolts against the Roman Empire In addition the title includes detailed entries on medieval conflicts such as the Crusades and contemporary conflicts such as the Arab Israeli wars The introduction provides readers with the necessary context to understand the region's bloody history and a comprehensive chronology that will help students construct a more complete picture of conflict in the Holy Land Then come hundreds of key entries on the events individuals groups places and ideologies that have played an important role The title concludes with an expansive bibliography that will aid students looking to do more research on the topic and a thorough index The Presbyterian, 1903 The Eucharistic Sacrifice Alfred Garnett Mortimer, 1901 Christian Standard
