Oxford History Of Classical Art:

The Oxford History of Classical Art John Boardman, 1997 The story of classical art The Oxford History of Classical Art (in Acq) John Boardman, 1993 John Boardman (ed.) "The Oxford History of Classical Art" Martin F. Klimer, 1993 The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross

fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Archaic and Classical Greek Art Robin Osborne,1998 Explores the art of ancient Greece and its relationship to the world in which it was produced The Oxford Illustrated History of the Renaissance Gordon Campbell,2019 The story of the long Renaissance for a new generation from Giotto and Dante in thirteenth century Italy to the English literary Renaissance in the first half of the seventeenth century The Diffusion of Classical Art in Antiquity John Boardman,2023-08-15 From one of the world s leading authorities on ancient Greek art a groundbreaking account of how Greek images were understood and used by other ancient peoples from Britain to China In this book acclaimed archaeologist and art historian John Boardman explores Greek art as a foreign art transmitted to the non Greeks of antiquity peoples who weren t necessarily able to judge the meaning of Greek art and who may have regarded the Greeks themselves with great hostility Boardman examines how and why the arts of the classical world traveled and to what effect from Britain to China from roughly the eighth century BCE to the early centuries CE In some places such as Italy Greek images were overwhelmingly successful In Egypt the Celtic world the eastern steppes and other regions with strong local traditions they were never effectively assimilated And in cultures where there was a subtler blend of influences notably in the Buddhist east classical images served as a catalyst to the generation of new styles Along the way Boardman demonstrates that looking at Greek art from the outside provides a wealth of new insights into Greek art itself and he raises important questions about how images in general are copied and reinterpreted A World History of Art Hugh Honour,John Fleming,2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity s artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression The Oxford History of Greece and the Hellenistic World John Boardman,Jasper Griffin,Oswyn Murray,1991-09-05 This authoritative study covers the period from the eighth century BC which witnessed the emergence of the Greek city states to the conquests of Alexander the Great and the establishment of the Greek monarchies some five centuries later History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson,Anthony F. Janson,2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book s incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years

Hellenistic Art Lucilla Burn,2004 In this beautifully illustrated volume Burn Keeper of Antiquities Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge introduces the Hellenistic world to students and readers interested in ancient Greek society After a brief political and cultural overview Burn identifies several distinctly Hellenistic artistic developments emerging in fourth century Macedon She then examines representations of royal and private individuals the design furnishing and appearances of cities sanctuaries houses and tombs and the characteristic themes of Hellenistic iconography Twentieth Century Design Jonathan M. Woodham,1997-04-10 A look at the wider issues of design and industrial culture throughout Europe Scandinavia North America and the Far East The book explores the way in which 20th century designs such as the Coca Cola bottle have affected our culture more than those considered true classics Art and Architecture of the World's Religions Leslie D. Ross,2009-06-04 Two abundantly illustrated volumes offer a vibrant discussion of how the divine is and has been represented in art and architecture the world over Beginning with the ancient worlds of Mesopotamia Egypt Greece and Rome and moving forward through time Art and Architecture of the World s Religions explores the major faiths from countries and continents around the globe helping readers better understand the creations their beliefs have inspired After tracing the history and development of a religion the book provides a general overview of its principal beliefs and key practices It then offers specific examples of how works of art architecture reflect that religion s values The focus of each chapter is on the temples churches and religious buildings statues paintings and other works of art and architecture created by believers Each representative work of art or architecture is examined in terms of its history materials symbols colors and patterns as its significance is explained to the reader With extensive illustrations these volumes are the definitive reference work on art and architecture of the world s religions Classical Art Christine Kondoleon,Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,2008 Ancient Greek Roman and Etruscan civilizations come vividly to life in this selection of over one hundred highlights from the MFA s collection of Classical art An introduction by curators Christine Kondoleon and Richard A Grossmann outlines the geographical and historical scope of the Classical world from the Bronze Age to Late Antiquity describes the range of materials and techniques used by ancient artists and provides a brief history of the MFA's collection An appendix by conservator Pamela Hatchfield shares the conservation stories of some of the featured objects In the splendidly illustrated body of the book the highlighted artworks are grouped according to five broad themes myth and religion heroes and warriors love and loss daily life and beasts and beauties Celebrated mosaics statues and vases share the stage with less familiar jewelry coins and glassware each piece accompanied by a concise discussion of its artistic creation and cultural context Both shared interests and varied traditions emerge in cross cultural discussions of topics such as war and politics commemoration of the dead sports and entertainment and the human form providing rich insight into the astonishing civilizations that produced and used these fascinating objects so many centuries ago
