The Color of Justice Samuel Walker, Cassia Spohn, Miriam DeLone, 2004 Comprehensive and balanced THE COLOR OF JUSTICE is the definitive book on current research and theories of racial ethnic and gender discrimination within America s criminal justice system The authors synthesize the best and the most recent research on patterns of criminal behavior and victimization police practices court processing and sentencing the death penalty and correctional programs giving your students the facts and theoretical foundation they need to make their own informed decisions about discrimination in the system Uniquely unbiased THE COLOR OF JUSTICE makes every effort to incorporate discussion of all major race groups found in the United States

The Invisible Woman Joanne Belknap, 2007 The definitive text for the course Belknap covers women and the criminal justice system with a focus on three major areas 1 female offenders and their treatment by the criminal justice system 2 female victims of crime and 3 female employees of the agencies of the criminal justice system

Girls, Delinquency, and Juvenile Justice Meda Chesney-Lind, Randall G.

Shelden,2004 Filling a tremendous gap in criminological literature Girls Delinquency and Juvenile Justice focuses on the special problems delinquent girls face within our criminal justice system and exposes the system's failed attempts to apply male oriented theories to the delinquency of females Authors Meda Chesney Lind and Randall G Shelden include the relevance of classic theories of delinquency to female juveniles an impressive amount of historical data and numerous contemporary studies to show that often mainstream theories and approaches don't work with female juveniles and ten in depth interviews with delinquent girls who share their experiences in the criminal justice system In addition to greater theoretical development this second edition has been thoroughly updated with a separate chapter on girls in gangs important new statistics and more information on the use of drugs and alcohol addicted babies the impact of the newest legislation and the relative success of alternative programs to incarceration

Serial Murderers and Their Victims Eric W. Hickey,2006 The author examines the lives of over 400 serial murderers analyzing the cultural historical and religious factors that influence our myths and stereotypes of these individuals He then describes the biological psychological and sociological reasons for serial murder offering his own Trauma Control model for explaining serial murder behaviour This new edition includes new case profiles of Canada's two most prolific serial killers Robert Willy Picton and Clifford Olsen

Crime Victims Andrew Karmen,2004 The first and most comprehensive look at victimology Karmen's CRIME VICTIMS offers balanced coverage of this complex and at times controversial subject

Media, Crime, and Criminal Justice Ray Surette,2007 Become a critical media consumer with MEDIA CRIME AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE With the rise of media's role in reporting crime and using crime as entertainment the importance of the interplay between the mass media news and entertainment systems and the criminal justice system may be greater today than ever before This criminal justice text provides a bridge between relevant mass media research findings and criminal justice practice and corrects common misconceptions regarding the mass media's effects on crime and justice An end of book glossary chapter by chapter objectives classroom discussion questions and additional readings help you master the material and prepare for tests

Man to Man Lee N. June,Christopher C. Mathis,Matthew Parker,2025-09-02 This book shows how one can avoid the pitfalls associated with Black manhood to achieve spiritual personal and social prosperity from the Introduction Be empowered by the voices of African American men across professions and experiences including pastors educators community leaders and even youth Their expertise biblical insight and hard earned wisdom will build up men who are yearning to understand how their faith can impact all aspects of their lives Each section of the book equips Christian Black men in a key growth area Developing life enhancement skills Mentoring and guidance for the next generation Strengthening relationships within families Dealing with the criminal justice system Facing contemporary and future challenges Whether you're a pastor educator counselor lay leader or simply someone concerned with how to turn life's hurdles into opportunities this book gives you proven perspectives that can spark success in your own and others lives The VOICES community discusses develops and distributes resources by Black Christian content creators for communities of color The VOICES community seeks to share our particular stories to make God's life changing wisdom understandable and accessible to all Hear Us See Us Experience VOICES Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 2002 Policing Gangs and Youth Violence Scott H. Decker, 2003 This title is part of The Wadsworth Professionalism in Policing Series edited by Samuel Walker This reader is a descriptive presentation of current practices within policing and juvenile justice focusing on gangs that utilize the community policing model By looking at specific strategies and their efficacy the authors attempt to combat a major perceived problem with community policing that the methodology of community policing can be subjective and nebulous using ill defined and misinterpreted practices This book shows what is working for agencies across the country and how these best practices can be employed International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice, 2005 Criminal Justice Steven P. Lab, Marian Rebecca Williams, Jefferson E. Holcomb, Melissa W. Burek, William R. King, Michael E. Buerger, 2008 Criminal Justice The Essentials is an innovative alternative to large overwhelming texts that attempt to cover every conceivable issue a goal that cannot realistically be accomplished in a single academic term Ideal for introductory courses in criminal justice this volume covers all the fundamental issues faced by law enforcement the courts corrections and juvenile justice but leaves detailed specifics and tangential topics to the discretion of instructors to cover in class This approach provides instructors with a great deal of flexibility in orienting their courses as they can use whatever supplementary materials they feel are most suitable Each chapter covers the background current issues and problems and operational challenges of the subject area All important materials are incorporated into the normal flow of the text with abundant examples but a minimum of sidebars and highlights Therefore students are not forced to sift through encyclopedic amounts of material in order to determine what is the most significant since only the essentials are presented Timely data and current examples sustain student interest The text is also supplemented by a Companion Website and an Instructor's Manual Women Street Hustlers Barbara A. Rockell, 2008 While the number of women in U S jails remains low in comparison with the number of men over the past 10 years their admission rate has soared and now surpasses the rate of increase for men While demographic information is available on these women it tells us little about who they are as people how they become repeat offenders or how they survive on the street The author sheds light on these issues in a study of female repeat offenders admitted to a New York state jail Despite the women's self defeating behaviors many of them reveal a surprising degree of initiative and self sufficiency This finding runs counter to previous research in which drug use and criminal activity by women have been viewed as reflecting the perpetrators victim status and lack of agency The author argues for seeing these behaviors in a broader social context and suggests avenues for future study as well as more humane and constructive intervention strategies Prisoner Reentry and the Life Course Daniel J. O'Connell, 2006 O'Connell asks whether prisoners who establish social bonds in the reentry process fare better than those who do not His analysis tests whether life course approaches to desistance are applicable to modern largely minority heavily drug involved criminal justice populations By accounting for stable individual traits and testing race in separate models rather than as a variable OConnell shows how reentering offenders with different backgrounds engage in relationships and employment and how these relations in turn affect drug use and recidivism Life course approaches may require modification to account for racial differences and we need to reconsider our definitions of success and to think in terms of harm reduction in approaching criminal justice interventions

Women in the Criminal Justice System Tina L. Freiburger, Catherine D. Marcum, 2015-07-29 This book provides a rare up to date examination of women both as offenders and employees in the criminal justice system It presents the current state of females in the system through contributions by expert authors It discusses the criminal justice system's reaction to women as well as the successes and failures of its responses and current and future consequences It outlines the history of women in the context of the criminal justice system discusses specific women's issues in focused chapters and highlights key concepts statistics and legislation Each chapter ends with discussion questions to enhance understanding
