Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field. Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts, this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures. George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics, argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies, and critiques several of its key creators and texts. Scholarly and sophisticated, the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr  Alexis Dionne Brand, Austin Clarke, Claire Harris, and M. Nourbese Philip. In so doing, Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism, liberalism and conservatism. These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity. Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa, African America, and the Caribbean. In addition to the essays, Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts, literature, and criticism from both English and French Canada. This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora.

The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne, 2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400-year fight for equity and justice. Organized by area of endeavor and by province, the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich, diverse, and complex legacy. This volume lists resources that point to blacks' history as soldiers, prospectors, educators, cowboys, homesteaders, entertainers, legislators, athletes, artists, servants, and writers. The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published, it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history. Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution. Academicians, researchers, students, and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada.

The Imaginary: Word and Image, 2015-05-19 The imaginary as a critical concept originated in the twentieth century and has been theorized in diverse ways. It can be understood as a register of thought, the way we interpret the world, the universe of images, signs, texts, and objects of thought. In this volume, it is explored as it manifests itself in encounters between the verbal and the visual. A number of the essays brought together here explore the transposition of the imaginary in illustrations of texts and verbal renditions of images as well as in comic books based on paintings or on verbal narratives Others analyze ways in which books deal with film or television and investigate the imaginary in digital media Special attention is paid to the imaginary of places and the relationship of the imaginary with memory Written in English and French these contributions by European and American scholars demonstrate the various concerns and approaches characteristic of contemporary scholarship in word and image studies Michaël Ferrier, Transnational Novelist: French Without Borders Akane Kawakami, 2023-11-15 Michaël Ferrier is a prize winning novelist essayist and academic whose cosmopolitan life he grew up in Chad and France has Mauritian roots and lives in Japan has inspired him to write some fascinating novels that cross generic and geographical boundaries This book is the first ever monograph dedicated to his works which explore themes as various as an African childhood notions of Frenchness inter identities and post Fukushima life in Japan Hybridity is key to his themes forms and genres which include as befits a twenty first century author a website called Tokyo Time Table and discussed in this study Kawakami uses an eclectic range of frameworks to analyse Ferrier's output ranging from translingualism to Environmental Humanities and Ferrier's own vision of his oeuvre which he discloses for the first time in this book in the interview that he grants Kawakami This interview first published in this volume is rich in insights into Ferrier's views on dreams Japan the internet and collaborating with other artists This book is an indispensable guide to an author who is one of the rising stars of contemporary French and Francophone literature and a unique voice that crosses all kinds of borders across the globe The Anarchist & the Devil Do Cabaret Norman Nawrocki, 2003 When the internationally acclaimed anarcho rock n roll cabaret band rebel news orchestra Rhythm Activism tours Europe to promote a new CD to enthusiastic fans they find a continent seething with political and racial tension Outside the netherworld of squats urine drenched dives and hardcore clubs they meet Europe's new multi racial underclass the working poor street people immigrants the marginalized and the defiant This book is an amazing portrayal of that tour told with a sense of humour and a down to earth perception Part travelogue band chronicles it describes an underground indie music scene where rebel culture rules It also contains 23 short fiction pieces urban fairy tales filled with a cast of friends lovers panhandlers and anarchists Book jacket Isabel de Bavière Alexandre Dumas, 1872 Musée entomologique illustré histoire naturelle iconographique des insectes publiée par une réunion d'entomologistes français et étrangers sous la direction de J.
