The field of New Testament studies often appears splintered into widely different specializations and narrowly defined research projects Nevertheless some of the most important insights have come about when curious men and women have defied disciplinary boundaries and drawn on other fields of knowledge in order to gain a more adequate view of history The essays in Bridges in New Testament Interpretation offer surveys of the current scholarly discussion in areas of New Testament and Christian origins where cross disciplinary fertilization has been decisive and describe the role that interdisciplinary bridges especially as led by Richard A Horsley have played Topics include the socioeconomic history of Roman Palestine the historical Jesus in political and media contexts communication media orality and social context in the study of Q the Gospels in the context of oral culture performance and social memory reading Paul's letters in the context of

Roman imperial culture the narrativization of early Christianity in relation to the ancient media environment and the role of power in shaping our understanding of history as evident in people s history the historical agency of subordinate classes and the role of public and hidden transcripts in contexts shaped by power relations Essays also address the role of the interpreter as engaged with the social and political concerns of our time The sum is even greater than the parts presenting a powerful argument for the value of further exploration across interdisciplinary bridges     Religious Books and Serials in Print, 1980-1981 ,1980     Publishers Weekly ,1920     University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Catalog: ARTS & SCIENCES, COLLEGE OF. University of Nebraska--Lincoln.
