Mastering Photography Masculinity In Popular Culture:

Mastery of Words and Swords Jun Lei, 2021-11-03 The crisis of masculinity surfaced and converged with the crisis of the nation in the late Qing after the doors of China were forced open by Opium Wars The power of physical aggression increasingly overshadowed literary attainments and became a new imperative of male honor in the late Qing and early Republican China Afflicted with anxiety and indignation about their increasingly effeminate image as perceived by Western colonial powers Chinese intellectuals strategically distanced themselves from the old literati and reassessed their positions vis vis violence In Mastery of Words and Swords Negotiating Intellectual Masculinities in Modern China 1890s 1930s Jun Lei explores the formation and evolution of modern Chinese intellectual masculinities as constituted in racial gender and class discourses mediated by the West and Japan This book brings to light a new area of interest in the Man Question within gender studies in which women have typically been the focus To fully reveal the evolving masculine models of a scholar warrior this book employs an innovative methodology that combines theoretical vigor archival research and analysis of literary texts and visuals Situating the changing inter and intra gender relations in modern Chinese history and Chinese literary and cultural modernism the book engages critically with male subjectivity in relation to other pivotal issues such as semi coloniality psychoanalysis modern love feminism and urbanization Jun Lei s brilliant book offers a wealth of information and insights on how intellectuals such as Liang Qichao and Lu Xun shaped notions of Chinese masculinity in the tumultuous late Qing and May Fourth periods Its account of how China s interactions with the West and Japan impacted ideas of masculinity in modern times is compelling reading Kam Louie author of Theorising Chinese Masculinity Society and Gender in China and Chinese Masculinities in a Globalizing World What are political and cultural consequences when a Chinese man looks and behaves like a woman Jun Lei probes the psychic intellectual and nationalist underpinnings of that question This provocative book offers an engaging story and insightful analyses about how male writers grappled with the effeminate look and strove to revitalize manliness Ban Wan A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami, Monica Blackmun

Visona, 2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art Women, Power, and Politics Lori Cox Han, Caroline Heldman, 2018 This textbook provides a comprehensive assessment of women in American politics as participants candidates and office holders as well as important public policies that affect women in their daily lives Firmly grounded in current Political Science research this textbook also provides cutting edge analysis of current topics such as gender feminism social media and issues within the current gender justice movement to name a few in its coverage This textbook will be timely and relevant to undergraduate students in its coverage of important topics and will provide a strong overview of important research in the field of women and politics for graduate students In addition the pedagogical features included throughout the textbook will help students develop critical thinking skills as well as provide resources to become lifelong learners on this topic

Borderline Stan Goff,2015-07-30 In his sharp observant book Stan Goff grapples with a problem crucial to modern Christian values The sanctification of war and contempt for women are both grounded in a fear that breeds hostility a hostility that valorises conquest and murder In Borderline Goff dissects the driving force behind the darkest impulses of the human heart The un Christian history of loving war and hating women are not merely similar but two sides of the same coin he argues in an autobiography that spanstwo millennia of war and misogyny Borderline is the personal and conceptual history of an American career army veteran transformed by Jesus into a passionate advocate for nonviolence written by a man who narrates his conversion to Christianity through feminism
